BRISBANE (Q.).

SOME USEFUL PRESCRIPTIONS.

Sore Mouth in Childhood.—Thoroughly wash the mouth with pure water, and then with the following wash :—Potassium chlorate, 10 grains ; listerine, 2 drachms ; water, 1 ounce.

If the pain is very severe rinse out the mouth with—salicylic acid, 1 part ; water, 250 parts.

NOTE.—Great care should be taken to see that the food eaten agrees with the little sufferer, and that in as far as possible it is germ free.

Enlargement of the Tonsils.—If the enlargement is only slight simply paint their surfaces daily with this lotion :—Tincture of chloride of iron, 1 drachm ; glycerine, 4 drachms.

When, however, the tonsils are quite large so as to interfere with perfect breathing as indicated by such symptoms as struggling for breath and snoring at night, the only proper course is to remove them. With modern methods and appliances this can be done almost in a second of time, and practically without pain. If the cut surfaces are cocaineised and touched with the electro-cautery knife a week after removal of the tonsils they will never return.

Thread Worms.—Cleanse the lower bowel by an enema of warm soapy water, and then inject—Alum, 1 drachm ; water, 1 pint.

At the same time administer internally—Santonine, $\frac{1}{2}$ grain ; aromatic powder, 1 grain.

Take a powder at bedtime and follow it with a dose of castor oil in the morning.

Rickets.—See that the food is nourishing. Keep the child in a pure atmosphere, and, when the sun is not too strong, in the sunshine. Night and morning give a short tepid bath, followed by brisk rubbing of the entire body, should the child be able to stand it. Weather permitting, let the child exercise freely in the open air.

Sandy Blight.—This disease is an affection of the eyes, due to infection by a germ very often borne to the visual organs by means of flies and other small insects.

The following is a simple course of home treatment for this malady, and can be put into practice by any mother of ordinary intelligence :—

Insist that the eyes be not rubbed, no matter how badly they may feel. During the first week bathe both eyes twice daily, without opening the lids, with first quite hot water for five minutes and then cold water for two minutes, repeating these alternate applications three or four times in succession. Three times a day insert between the lids a drop or two of an alum solution made by dissolving a grain of alum in an ounce of water that has been boiled. If alum water cannot be obtained, use a boracic acid solution.

As soon as the acute inflammation has subsided, apply hot, but not too hot, flannels over both eyes, renewing the application every five minutes or half an hour. Give this treatment three times a day. In addition drop one drop of the glyceride of tannin, in the proportion of four grains of tannin to an ounce of glycerine, into each eye. Leave it there for half a minute and then thoroughly wash out the medicine with clean water, washing until the slight burning sensation ceases. Each eye should be treated separately, the second not being touched until the treatment of the first is completed. Let this be done once a day only.

Throughout the whole course of the treatment, the patient should never be exposed to a strong light.—Herald of Health.

Sick Headache.—Sick headache, when not due to eye strain, is usually associated with disorders of the stomach. The sufferer should adopt an antiseptic dietary, consisting of fruits, grains, and nuts. Coarse vegetables and meats should be avoided, as also tea and coffee. A fomentation over the stomach at bedtime, followed by a wet abdominal girdle to be worn during the night, will assist in removing the cause of the headache, and fomentations applied directly to the part affected will relieve the pain. Sometimes it is advisable to wash out the stomach at the beginning of the attack. Persons subject to sick headaches should especially avoid the use of milk and flesh foods.—DR. KELLOGG.

Chafed Skin in Infants.—Young mothers are often at a loss to know what to do for their infants when the skin of some locality has become chafed. Dust the parts with this powder:—Oxide of zinc powder, 8 ounces; starch powder, 8 ounces.

A Valuable Gargle.—In almost all mouth and throat troubles this gargle will be found excellent:—Alcohol, 1 ounce; glycerine, 1 ounce; boracic acid, 1 drachm; bicarbonate of soda, 2 drachms. Use a tablespoonful in a half glass of hot water.

Diet in Fevers.—Milk is not now used so much as it used to be in febrile conditions. In severe fevers this diet is the best:—The first few days, unless the patient be very weak, give nothing but the juices of fruit, stewed without much sugar. After the first few days give at regular intervals of three hours a small cup of grain gruel. Gluten gruel is the most nourishing. When improvement is taking place, thicker gruels and even porridges may be substituted for the previous dietary.

How to Whiten the Neck and Arms.—A very pleasant and slightly fragrant lotion for whitening the neck and arms is made as follows:—Powdered borax, three drachms; glycerine, three-quarters of an ounce; elder flower or rosewater, twelve ounces. This lotion has the advantage of being perfectly harmless.

Pleasant Deodorizers.—Reduce to powder eight drachms of cascarilla bark, four drachms of gum benzoin, two drachms of styrax, two drachms of yellow sanvers, two drachms of olibanum, six ounces of charcoal, and one and a half drachms of nitre; make into a firm paste with mulcilage of tragacanth and mould into small cones, which dry in the oven. There may be lighted to give a pleasant fresh odour to an apartment.

Poisoning.—Administer at once a teaspoonful of mustard or powdered alum in a glass of warm water, following this with several glasses of luke warm water. Keep the patient vomiting until certain that the stomach is empty.

Sore Lips.—Do not allow the tongue to touch the sore spots. Keep them dry if possible. At night apply a little of this ointment:—Zinc oxide ointment, $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce; yellow oxide of mercury ointment, 1 drachm; carbolic acid, 10 grains.

Flatulence.—Wear the moist abdominal girdle at night. After each meal take:—Powdered charcoal, 1 drachm; bismuth subnitrate, 5 grains; water, 6 ounces.

Tapeworm.—To expel this intestinal parasite, the patient must greatly restrict the diet for two or three days, eating chiefly eggs, milk, white bread, fruit and cereals. Give two large soapy enemas daily. On the third morning take a very light breakfast of milk and toast. Follow this with:—Koo-soo decoction, 6 drachms. Two hours later swallow:—Castor Oil, 2 tablespoonfuls. Then watch for the head of the worm in the discharges. These are adult doses.

THE PRACTICAL USE OF FRUIT.

Laxatives.—It is a general belief that all fruits are laxative in their action upon the body. This is far from being the case. Oranges, figs, prunes, tamarinds, mulberries, dates, nectarines, and plums, are laxatives.

Astringents and Antilaxatives.—Pomegranates, cranberries, blackberries, raspberries, quinces, pears, wild cherries, medlars.

Diuretics.—(To increase the activity of the kidneys).—Grapes, peaches, strawberries, prickly pears, and black currants.

Refrigerants.—Gooseberries, red currants, white currants, melons.

Stomachic Sedatives.—Lemons, limes, apples.

Garden, Orchard, and Farm Memoranda.

Prepared by Mr. J. H. SIBLEY, British and Foreign Seed Depot, George Street, Brisbane.

JANUARY.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—There is not very much to be planted, but every care should be taken to keep the soil well cleansed from all kinds of weeds, so as never to allow them to seed. Ground not cropped must be broken up and kept clean. You can plant French beans, both dwarf and running, spinach, sweet corn, tomatoes, marrows, squashes, melon (water and rock), and pumpkins. It is useless to try to grow any other kind of vegetable, by reason of the heat, except in the colder districts. Sweet potatoes may be planted, and the beds dug, manured, and got ready to sow the first crop of cauliflower and cabbage.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The same precaution must be taken to keep the ground clean from weeds. Plants of roses, shrubs, etc., that have been grown in pots, may be planted out carefully, with a liberal supply of water. This month you can sow seeds of primula, pansies, cineraria, in well-prepared seed pans or boxes, well shaded. In the open, plant balsams, coxcombs, amaranthus, zinnia, coleus, helichrysum, marigold, etc. Keep your plants—such as carnations, bouvardias, dahlia, etc.—well staked. Coleus are now looking grand in their vast array of gorgeous color in hotter parts, in the open, in colder districts, of course, they will be in the bush house. Glass houses and bush houses should now be looking their best, with caladiums, begonias, gloxinia, etc. Re-pot and plant ferns in good bush soil; they require plenty of moisture, shade, and good drainage, also plenty of light, but not the hot sun. Charcoal is a splendid acquisition to the pot soil, for all kinds of ferns.

ORCHARD.—Care must be taken to keep the ground open, forked up, and free from weeds. Keep grape vines tied up so that the wind does not damage the foliage; remove all suckers and useless growth. Where the fruit on tree hangs too thick, thin them out.

FARM.—It is a busy time now, as several crops can go in for feed, such as panicum, sorghum, rye, cow peas, Kaffir corn, maize, etc. Before sowing these crops, well plough and prepare the ground. Lucerne may be sown, also paspalum dilitatum. This is the great dairying grass of the day. It is a grass that will stand dry or wet weather; grows on almost any soil, and gives an abundant crop. It soon spreads, as it sheds its seed very freely. The roots of this grass can be planted all the year round, or nearly so. Poverty Bay perennial rye grass. This is undoubtedly the best of this variety, as it grows stronger, and gives more fodder than any other.

FEBRUARY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—A great deal has to be done this month in preparing boxes for flower seeds, and the flower beds by cleansing from all weeds, manuring, and digging the ground. Of course, the time varies in different parts of the States as to sowing flower seeds. For instance, in Queensland you may commence in February, with the exception of the colder parts, such as the Downs, which will be somewhat later. But to ensure a good display of bloom, it is well to start early, provided you sow in seed boxes, and keep them shaded and well watered. Begin with phlox, candytuft, dianthus, carnations, antirrhinum, browallia, cornflower, globe amaranthus, scabiosa, mignonette, pansy, Canterbury bells, schizanthus, eschscholtzia, forget-me-not, lupins, marigold, larkspur, sweet pea, sweet sultan, marguerites, cineraria, petunia, gloxinia, and many others. When the plants are about two inches high, transfer them to the bed; if possible, in cloudy or showery weather. Thin out dahlias, and tie up; look over your roses, removing all unnecessary wood, cleansing bark from scale, digging between them, and well mulching with manure. Look over pot plants, stirring up and loosening the soil, and adding little bone dust, or watering with liquid manure.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Dig up ground not cropped, and manure for the crop. You can make your first sowing of cauliflower, cabbage, celery, French beans, carrots, turnips, radish, lettuce, onion, beet root, mustard cress, kohlrabi, parsnips, peas, etc. Well mulch all ground where your melons, pumpkins, cucumbers, marrows, etc., are growing. This will keep the heat out the better, and invigorate the vines. If the weather be dry, give them a thorough watering; water well, for a sprinkling does more harm than good. Potatoes for first crop may now be got in. Look to your grape vines, and carefully tie up the required shoots. Any ground where you intend to plant fruit trees should be well dug and left for a time to sweeten; then dig in the manure, and be ready to plant trees later on.

FARM.—Ground should be prepared by deep ploughing. Sow lucerne, cape barley, tare, sorghum, Kaffir corn, setaria germanica, and any tropical fodder. Also plant paspalum dilatatum, either seeds or roots. Any farmer who has not tried this valuable fodder is advised to try it at once. It requires about six pounds to the acre; or, better still, if you take, say, three pounds and three or four pounds of other grasses, mix and sow together. Care is to be taken in selecting good heavy seeds, as so much very inferior stuff is often offered, very little of which will grow. Good paspalum should weigh 130 pounds to the sack, but much is offered weighing only sixty to eighty pounds to the sack. Hence, you see, care must be taken when purchasing your seed.

MARCH.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now we can sow a general variety of all kinds of flower seeds for the winter blooming. Snapdragon, calliopsis, galliardia, phlox, carnation, aster (though the aster grows and blooms in the winter, spring is the best time for planting, and better results are obtained), marigold, schizanthus, hunnamannia, eschscholtzia, marguerites, ranunculus, anemones, leptosyne, marvel of Peru, lupins, mignonette, candytuft, pansy, poppy (amongst poppies the Shirley is a very pretty delicate variety, but better still is the beautiful Iceland poppy), larkspur, forget-me-not (Cape and English), rhodanthe, acroclinium, lobelia, and many others. As said before, sow all seeds in boxes of soft, well-prepared soil. Shade with old newspaper or any thing suitable, but paper is the best. As soon as the seedlings appear, take off the paper, and keep well moist in planting out. Do it carefully, taking as much soil with the roots as possible, and well water if there be no rain. All autumn flowering shrubs have a gay appearance now. Look over your garden walks and borders to keep weeds from seeding. Fork in the mulching, and keep the hoe going between plants. Edging and hedges should be clipped. Tie up and stake all plants needing it. Bulbs may now be put in—hyacinth, tulips, snowflakes, freesias, daffodils, anemone, sparaxis, iris, lilliums, alliums, jonquils, tritonias, narcissus, monstretia, scillas, tuberoses, watsonia, etc.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—General crops can now be started. Sow cauliflower, cabbage, turnips, radish, lettuce, carrot, onion, peas, beet, broad beans, French beans, parsnips, kohlrabi, mustard cress, thyme, sage, marjoram, parsley, etc. Plant vegetables always in rows, about two feet from row to row; by so doing you can more easily use the hoe and keep weeds down. Do not sow too deep. Sow, also, silver beet, potatoes, Brussels sprouts. Don't sow your vegetable crop near your fruit trees.

ORCHARD.—Gently fork ground between the fruit trees (not deep, so as to disturb the roots). Ground not cropped as yet should be dug up, cleaned, and manured. Now is the time to transplant strawberries, such as Marguerite, Pink's Prolific, Trollope's Victoria, Federation, and do not forget a splendid strawberry, called "Foreman's." This is undoubtedly the most luscious fruit of them all—in fact, perfectly equal in flavour to any strawberry grown in the Old Country. The late Governor of Queensland (Lord Lamington) pronounced it equal to any he had ever eaten.

FARM.—Plough and clean land, sow your lucerne, rye barley, tares, wheat, oats, prairie grass (an excellent grass); also plant swede turnips, mangold wurzel (not nearly enough of this valuable root food is planted in Queensland). Plant potatoes, large Belgian carrots, etc. In the North, go on planting sugarcane and tobacco. In warm districts, there is still time to get a crop of imphee and setaria germanica. We omitted when speaking of fruits tree to say that all land to be planted with them should now be got ready by trenching and manuring.

APRIL.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The rose, justly called the Queen of Flowers, is, on all kinds of soil, the most satisfactory of garden plants in Queensland. The month of April is the most suitable for the laying down of a rose garden. For the amateur gardener the most satisfactory method of growing roses is from either worked or rooted roses, such as are procurable at a small price from any florist. The first step should be the laying out of the rose bed. The bed should be well drained, with drain pipes if practicable, and should be trenched to a depth of 18 inches. On the arrival of the plants, if not in pots, they should be carefully unpacked in a shady place and water sprinkled over them. and then wrapped in a wet bag while being planted. Should the plants appear shrivelled, open a trench in the ground and lay them flat in the bottom; cover them entirely (roots and branches), with six inches of soil and give them a good soaking with water. After allowing them to remain under ground for two or three days, dig them up and plant as directed. Plants in pots may be at once transferred to the ground and need less care. To plant the roses, dig holes about fifteen inches square, and sufficiently deep to bring the bud (i.e., lower branches) about one-and-a-half to two inches under the general level of the ground. Carefully separate and spread out the roots all round, giving them a downward tendency, then fill in about three inches of soil, and tread down as firmly as possible. Failure often occurs from loose planting. Fill in again with more soil, having the plant in a basin about two feet across and three inches deep, with a little mound of soil around the stem in the centre. Fill up this basin with stable manure, and give the plant about three gallons of water all over the manure mulching. Should the weather continue dry, water again in a week's time, and afterwards fortnightly, until the plants are established. Clean water should always be used to newly planted roses; soapy water will often prove fatal. Never manure the roots when planting, but mulching with manure round the roots has the effect of keeping the soil moist, preventing the ground caking and cracking, and allowing the water to soak in rapidly. After the roses have been planted for twelve months, they should be ready for pruning, which should be done as follows:—Begin by cutting out all dead and small or weak wood with a sharp knife. Afterwards cut back the shoots to a good eye. Should the plants have thrown up any strong new shoots during the summer (often misnamed water shoots) carefully preserve one or two of them, and if they are at all crowded out by old wood, cut the old wood clean away. Hybrid Perpetual roses require hard pruning; Tea roses light pruning; and Hybrid Teas a medium pruning. As regards the manuring of roses, horse manure is particularly suitable for incorporation with heavy or clay soils, and for mulching (it may be used fresh in both cases). Cow manure is more suitable for light, loamy, and sandy soils, but it should be allowed to rot in a heap for a month or two before being used. The following twenty roses will be found very suitable for the Queensland climate:—Comtesse de la Barthe, or Maiden Blush, Maman Cochet, White Maman Cochet, Marie Van Houtte, Kaiserin Augusta Victoria (climber), Madame de Watteville, Therese Levet, White Pearl, Madame Lambard, La France, Medea, Celine Forestier (climber), Lamarque (climber), Reine Marie Henriette (climber), Perle des Jardins (climber), Francesca Kruger, Christine de Noue, The Bride, Homer, Safrano.

MAY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Clean away all weeds and well fork up ground between rose bushes and shrubs already planted. Still continue to sow seeds of annuals for a good spring blooming, such as phlox, dianthus, carnations, snapdragon, linum, larkspur, echscholtzia, gaillardia, calliopsis, candytuft, mignonette, salpiglossis, summer chrysanthemum, cornflower, sweet pea, petunia, scabiosa, schizanthus, godetia, clarkia elegans, and many other varieties. Pansy seed may still be sown. It is often asked, what can I plant for a border flower? Here are a few—Pyrethrum (golden feather)—its beautiful bright yellow foliage lends an attraction to the flower garden; lobelia, with its pretty green leaf and pale and dark blue flowers, give a beautiful effect; sweet alyssum, a flower after the candytuft type, which gives a profusion of white flowers; Virginian stock, with a great show of pink and white flowers, is very effective. For plants to flower in pots, there is the primula, cineraria, etc.; but one that is very little trouble, is the cupid sweet pea, in pink and white. It grows a few inches high. Plant several peas in a five or seven-inch pot, with good soil. Place the pot in the open, as the bushhouse tends to draw them up too weak. Keep them well watered, and we feel sure you will be pleased with the result. All pot plants should have the soil well stirred up round the plant and given a sprinkle of bone dust. Mix this well in with the soil; it will invigorate the plant, and give a better colour to the foliage; also to water with liquid manure is very beneficial, horse or cow manure will do, the latter being the best. Put the manure in a kerosine tin, or anything else suitable, and fill up with water; use this about twice a week. Do not allow scale to accumulate on your roses, but dress them with Sibley's Scale Destroyer, obtained in bottles, and apply with paint brush. This will kill all scale without injury to the plant. Mildew is another pest that troubles the rose grower. Different remedies have been applied with success, such as dusting them over with flower of sulphur, early in morning, while the dew is on roses, then syringing them with emulsion. These are the ingredients for an emulsion—say half pound of soft soap, half pint kerosine, two gallons water, all well mixed, stir well each time before using, and apply with syringe. Sometimes it is as well to cut the rose back, and let it start afresh.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Still sow for succession, cabbage, turnip, radish, lettuce, parsnips, onion, beet root, spinach, celery, peas (also beans, if secure from frost), and leeks. There is one vegetable not much grown, because it is not much known—the silver beet. This plant is a special boon to those living on stations or in the bush, because it is easy of cultivation, and gives abundance of vegetables. It is not grown for the root, but for its leaves, which, when cooked, equals cabbage or spinach. Do not pull up the plant, but take off the leaves, and others will shoot up. Strip off all the green and cook like cabbage or spinach. The thick middle ribs can be cooked like asparagus. We strongly advise planting all vegetables in rows; you can walk then between the drills and weed without walking on your plants, and the garden looks much the neater.

ORCHARD.—This is the great month for planting fruit trees, also grape vines.

FARM.—Well dig and manure ground for the potato crop in the Northern Territory.

JUNE.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The time has fully come to plant the Queen of Flowers—the rose—as spoken of in April. Those who wish to have a splendid show of beautiful blooms must lose no time in selecting strong good plants of ever-blooming roses. Plant in good stiff soil, and give a good heavy mulching of well-rolled manure, and a rich reward of bloom will follow. The flower garden demands special attention at this time. Thoroughly clean all the flower beds from weeds, well dig and manure. Sow annuals of most kinds, such as phlox, carnation, antirrhinum, dianthus, everlastings, lupins, candytuft, mignonette, marigold, pansy, cornflower, calliopsis, gaillardia, sweet pea, larkspur, salpiglossis, leptosyne, linaria, nerembergia gracilis, schizanthus, marguerites, etc. All bulbs should be at once planted, such as daffodils, narcissus, freesias, ixias, tritonia, watsonia, babiana, gladioli, etc.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Much work has to be done. The ground well dug and manured, and thoroughly cleaned from all weeds. Sow cabbage for succession. For home consumption we thoroughly recommend Express and Winningstadt. These give early conical heads of delicious flavour. For successive crops sow all head, flat Dutch, St. John Day, and succession. Too much care cannot be taken to have them well dug, and well-manured soil. Plant savoy, turnip, carrot, parsnip, radish, lettuce, beet, onion, kohlrabi, swede turnip, parsley, peas, and—where free from frost—French beans. Broad beans may still be sown, also mustard cress and endive for salad. Amongst lettuce, we would advise to plant mammoth butteshead—a lettuce of enormous head and beautiful flavour; icebergs and ice are beautiful crisp lettuces; also Wonderful, Pasion, Hansen, etc. Amongst radishes, the Icicle stands first for a long one. It has long white clear roots, of great tenderness, entirely free from the tough stringiness of the other varieties.

ORCHARD.—Fruit trees should be got in, of nearly all varieties, so as to let them get a good root hold, ready for spring growth. All varieties of shade and ornamental trees should be planted without loss of time.

FARM.—You can sow lucerne, oats, wheat, rye, barley, tares, and other fodder grasses—such as cocksfoot, which withstands dry weather, thrives under shade trees, and will grow on very poor soil. Prairie grass makes a splendid fodder, and is always fairly cheap and plentiful. It grows well through the winter and spring, produces good milk, and is fattening for stock. Poverty Bay perennial rye grass cannot be too highly spoken of, as it stands a hot, dry, climate and lasts for years. We would strongly urge farmers to give this grass a trial. Also plant paspalum dilitatum, without doubt one of the most valuable grasses ever introduced in this State. When sown in autumn, it is well to sow, say, from four to six pounds to the acre, mixed with other grasses.

JULY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Keep all weeds down and well fork up between roses and trees already planted. The addition of manure mulching will well repay you. Sow flower seeds for spring and early summer flowering, such as snapdragon, phlox, gaillardia, calliopsis, candytuft, scarlet flax, lupins, mignonette, sweet pea, poppy, marigold—English, French, and African—summer chrysanthemums, scabiosa, sweet sultan, scabious, cornflower, carnation, clarkia, eschscholtzia—white and yellow—forget-me-not, marvel of Peru, malope, rhodanthe, acroclinium, globe amaranthus, pyrethrum stocks, Virginian stock, lobelia, nasturtium, Swan River daisy, browallia elata, Canterbury bells, columbine, mauranda (creeper), cobeia scandens (creeper), thumbergia (creeper), love-in-a-mist, nemophila, petunia, pentstemon, canary creeper, etc. For a sure return for your labour, we strongly advise all seeds to be planted in seed boxes. This little trouble will ensure you a splendid lot of plants, of course, always providing your seeds are fresh and good. Still plant roses and flowering shrubs. For a small garden there are a dozen good roses that will give you flowers nearly all the year round. Triomph de Pernet Pere (red), Kaiserin Augusta Victoria (white with lemon centre), Marie Van Houtte (white edged pink), Mamon Cochet (pink), Mamon Cochet (white), Perle des Jardins (yellow), Francois Dubreuil (velvet crimson), Madame de Watteville (salmon-pink bordered rose), Souv. de la Malmaison (flesh colour), Vick's Caprice (bright pink, marbled white), Niphetos (pure white), Christine de Noe (deep purplish red). These are twelve really good roses; of course there are many more. Now for three or four good climbers—Marechal Neil (deep yellow), climbing Kaiserin Victoria (creamy white), climbing Meteor (deep crimson), climbing Malmaison (fresh color), James Sprunt (black red), La Marque (white), Reine Marie Henrietta (bright red). For a small garden these will make bloom all the year round—that is, with proper attention. Close cut back all old roses that show no signs of flowering. Do not be afraid of cutting and thinning out; they will soon make a fresh start, and give increased bloom later on.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Keep on planting, for successive crops, cabbage, turnip, radish, beet root, parsnip, onion, leek, silver beet, peas, French beans (if free from frost), carrot, spinach, endive, salsify. Start sowing cucumber, vegetable marrow, tomato. By the way, some of the best tomatoes we can recommend are the American stone, Duke of York, ignotin acme, Mikado, optimus, Trucker's favourite. Of small varieties, King Humbert (peach, plum, cherry), and semper fructifera (enormously productive), scarlet pear shaped.

FARM.—Get your ground ready for potato crop and plant. Also for melons—new ground if possible. Plant your grape vines.

AUGUST.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now is the time to commence sowing summer annuals—cockscomb, zinnias, portulaca, helichrysum, balsam, nasturtium, and most of those named in last month. Portulaca is very pretty either for a border or to plant in whole beds; the colours are brilliant, and will keep on flowering till next autumn. The double variety, though more expensive, is very handsome. In zinnias, the new giant gives fine large double blooms. Balsams of any variety are very gorgeous, but the best of all is the camellia flowering variety, bearing flowers of unique colors almost as large as roses. Sow asters of all kinds now. They will give a good summer show. There is still time to plant roses, shrubs, and shade trees. Do not neglect your pot plants. Re-pot where necessary, and those you do not re-pot, well stir up the soil round the plant and add a little bone dust. This will start them off for the spring growth.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Sow carrots, turnips, radish, lettuce, French beans, beetroot, spinach, mustard and cress, etc. Now is the time for cucumbers. There are many splendid varieties for general crop—long green Athens, long green English prickly, Parisian, long ridge or white giant. Amongst other varieties are the Goliath, Telegraph, Swan's Neck (thirty inches long), Duke of Edinburgh, Glory of Erfurt (white), Noa's Forcing, Present Wonder, etc. Plant marrows and squashes of all kinds. One special squash of beautiful appearance and finest flavour is Charles Naudin, a pretty round variety mottled green and yellow. It is little known. Plant pumpkins. Good table varieties are Japanese, large and small Button, Crown, and Ironbark. Make your first sowing of water and rock melons. Melons are numerous in variety, but it will not be amiss to name a few good ones that have been well tried. First, Dixie is a beautiful water or sugar melon, attaining a great size. Then Kolb's Gem, Cuban Queen, Black Spanish, the Boss, Duke Jones, Sweetheart, are all of first rate quality. Among rock melons, the following are a few of the best:—Californian, Large Nutmeg, Skillman's Netted, Montreal, Green Nutmeg, Banquet. This latter is good, being perfectly round, not ribbed, but densely netted. New ground is always best for melons. Anyhow, in planting, use plenty well-rotted cow manure. Plant potatoes of all kinds now. Mushroom spawn can be planted now in some corner of a warm shed or in the open air later on. Instructions as to planting and growing mushrooms from spawn will be fully answered by letter on application to writer. Plant grapes now and sow sweet corn. Indian fruit or Cookra may be carefully planted. This is a cucumber shaped fruit, of white or yellow colour, highly aromatic, resembling a rock melon, and is very delicious.

SEPTEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—This month sow, as in last month, for summer blooming, zinnias, portulaca, helichrysum (a various colored everlasting flower), balsam, petunia, phlox, dianthus, snapdragon, aster. All roses planted now must be from pots, so as not to disturb the young growth at roots. Mangoes and camphor laurels may be planted, in fact, all kinds of shrubs can go in, provided they are from pots. Complete all pruning, dig up flower beds and borders, keep walks clear from weeds. Where the lawn is impaired sprinkle some seed of lawn grasses or couch cover, and water. This will cover bare patches. Plant verbenas, hollyhocks, gladiola bulbs, tuberose, amaryllis, etc. Chrysanthemums, for show purposes, should be got in now. Don't forget to re-pot plants in the bush house, and add a little bone dust. This will help them on to maturity. All plants, such as trees and roses, will require attention as to watering, as the west winds are very trying even in this month. A good mulching of old manure is a good thing to keep the dry weather out and the moisture in.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Asparagus bed requires a deal of water. Sow nearly all vegetables, such as carrot, turnip, beet, radish, lettuce, marrow, cucumber, pumpkin, squashes, etc. Sow cabbage, St. John's Day. The fly is troublesome, but I have had great success in growing cabbage of late where I never could before, on account of the grub. This is what I did—I keep a good few fowls, and as soon as I have a brood off, I put the hen in a coop, and keep her there, well feeding her, and place the coop in my vegetable garden. The little chicks, I can safely say, cleared off every grub. They were constantly under the cabbage picking up the minutest grub. You may depend upon it, they are very useful in the garden for the first month, after that, of course, they get too big, and must go in the fowl yard, but up to a month old they do little damage. All recently planted fruit trees, in the absence of rain, will require watering. There is still time to plant oranges and lemons. Remove all suckers from grapes and all branches or shoots not required. Pineapple suckers and bananas may be planted, also passion fruit, granadillas, paw paws, custard apples, guavas, etc. Ginger should be planted, also arrowroot, sweet potatoes, yams, maize, tobacco, cow peas, imphee, sorghum, panicum, Kaffir corn, etc. Potatoes must now be finally planted, and earth up those already growing. I omitted to say all climbing beans may now be planted; also Lima beans (both dwarf and climbing), the zebra runner or Neapolitan runner is a beautiful bean, and very prolific.

OCTOBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—All dahlias should now be planted. There are many very beautiful varieties of this showy flower. The double cactus dahlia is occupying a very important place amongst the class, of which there are many very beautiful kinds. It will not be amiss here to mention a dozen splendid cactus varieties—Connell's Crest (richest of the cherry red section), Captain Dreyfus (dark velvety maroon), Delicata (soft black), Dr. Nansen (bright scarlet), Empress of India (rich maroon crimson, very dark), Henry Patrick (white), Jealousy (dark yellow), Lord Roberts (the grandest white), Midnight Sun (intense crimson), Mrs. E. Connell (clear yellow, shaded red), Robert Connell, Magenta, the Czar, the Queen. The chief work to do, is to well attend to things that are flowering, by gently stirring up between plants, and raking over, keeping off all weeds in flower beds and in paths, keep grass well cut, and hedges well trimmed. Fruit trees, as mentioned in last month, may be planted from pots. Watch the bush house, doing any re-potting required, and potting off caladium, feeding pot plants with liquid manure. Look to your roses and keep them clear from scale and mildew by using remedies already mentioned.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—It is a matter of keeping the things growing already planted by keeping them clean and watered, if necessary. You may sow Lima beans, butter beans, French beans, snake beans, Madagascar beans, mustard and cress, rosella, lettuce, eschalots, cucumbers, marrows, squashes, as advised last month. A very useful cucumber is the Japanese climbing. It runs up sticks, like beans, and bears a beautiful eating cucumber about six inches long, more or less. Amongst choice cucumbers, are Rollison, Telegraph, Goliath, Present Wonder, Swan's Neck, Marquis of Lorne, Duke of Edinburgh, etc. Parsley can be planted.

I omitted when speaking of the flower garden to mention the beautiful coleus. These showy plants are so easily grown from slips, and give such a blaze of tropical beauty, that really no one should be without them. They do in greenhouse, bushes, verandahs, and they colour beautifully in a shady nook of your garden. The caladiums are a beautiful showy class of plants, but out of glass they do not color so well nor last too long.

FARM.—Plant as last month, lucerne, panicum, imphee, sorghum, tares, maize, sweet potato cuttings, Kaffir corn, yam, ginger, and arrowroot. Keep clean all growing crops. So much depends on keeping free from weeds, therefore never let them seed. The cow pea does well, and produces large crops of first-class fodder in dry seasons, and stock of every kind are very fond of it, and it is very valuable as a green manure. Poor worn out land cannot be better renovated. For green manure, 30 to 50 pounds should be sown to the acre, and ploughed in just as the seed pods are forming. For this purpose, it should be sown in early summer. There is the white cow pea, clay-coloured, black, and whip-poor-Will speckled liver color. All are good.

NOVEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Not much planting to be done this month and next; the idea is to look after those now growing. Dahlias may still be planted. Bulbs have mostly done flowering now, and are fairly ripe. These should be taken up, and stored away in a dry place for the time being, but it is just as well to look them over now and then, and pick out bad ones. A few zinnias and balsams can be planted, and sunflowers. Speaking of sunflowers, there is one variety called Stella, which we would certainly recommend to grow in preference to the baby sunflower. It is a little flower somewhat larger and better for cutting, single of course. There are two shades of this, yellow and sulphur yellow, and there is a very pretty double one called Soliel, of sulphur yellow, very pale. Hoe all your beds, loosen the soil, all mulching, clean scale off roses, tie up plants, get weeds off the paths and beds, water well in the evening—not in the morning, as the sun dries it up too quickly—but by watering in evening the plants get the benefit of it all night. Take care of your pot plants by stirring up soil and giving them liquid manure or bone dust.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Keep ground well cleaned up from weeds. If your melons, cucumbers, etc., are too thick, thin out. There is nothing gained by having things too thick, but rather a loss. Keep cucumbers and melons well watered. Peg down the runners, so as not to let the wind below them about. You can sow French beans, Tom Thumb lettuce, radish, Early Horn carrot, rosella, eschalot, pumpkins, and plant out (in dull weather, if possible), rosella plants. When good fruit is required on plums and peaches, thin out the fruit. Take away all suckers from trees and grapes. A very nice pumpkin, entirely new variety, was on show at the Exhibition this year for the first time, called Silver Nugget. This is small, round, and silvery white, a very important acquisition to a garden, as it is very awkward to have to cut up a large pumpkin, as the part left soon goes bad, but here is one you can for a cooking use the whole pumpkin. There is also another variety of climbing bean coming into notice. This is called the Cluster Pea Bean. It grows to a great height if allowed to grow, or you can let it grow to any required height, and pinch off the top. It grows with a very small fine foliage, a thin stem, and bears clusters of beans the size of a pea pod, in fact, it looks like peas. These you shell and cook after the same manner as peas. It bears clusters of beans from the ground up to the very top. This will be in the market next season.

FARM.—Not much is to be done, except constant attention to growing crops, and planting panicum, sorghum, etc., as last month. Sweet potato cuttings can be taken and planted about three feet apart in the row, and eighteen inches from plant to plant, taking about twelve thousand to the acre.

DECEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now is about the hottest time of the year, and great care has to be taken with all plants in the flower garden. In the absence of rain, freely water, but always in the evening. Keep the grass lawn well cut, and destroy all weeds, lightly hoe flower bed between the plants, and freely apply any mulching. Cut back roses showing no bloom, and a fresh start will soon be made. Stake the plants that lie straggling on ground. Watch the dahlias, thin out where needed, and make stakes thin. Little can be done this month in sowing seeds.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—You can plant beans, cucumbers, and squashes still, and don't let the fruit of these hang on the vines longer than necessary, as they weaken the vines. The first sowing of cauliflower and cabbage can be made in a cool shady place, and, if possible, well syringe the young plants. It tends to keep the fly off. As each piece of ground becomes vacant, turn it over, clean it, manure it, and, if possible, dig in some lime or salt, and prepare it for crops to be sown a little later on. Plant lettuce still. The Tom Thumb variety is the best now. Sow in thinly in rows, so that there will be no need to transplant. Sow New Zealand spinach, okra, snake beans, and sweet corn. For those who go in for a mushroom bed, it is a good time to put it down, and a method that has proved very successful to myself will not be out of place to mention here. Get a load of horse manure that has no bedding of any kind with it, such as sawdust, shavings, or otherwise, and that has been washed by rain. Put this in a dark corner of your garden, or in a corner of shed—a small plot of about three yards square is plenty. Put a piece of board round the manure to keep it up from spreading about. Stamp this manure very firmly down, add about three inches of nice light bush soil to the top, water it well. In two or three days it will heat, then break up a brick of mushroom spawn in little lumps, and plant down in this, again water, and cover over lightly with straw, hay, or grass. If the spawn is good, it will soon run through the manure, and appear above ground. Once you begin to cut mushrooms, you will be astonished the vast quantities you will cut off this small plot. Put grass, hay, or straw under your fruit trees to save the fruit that falls from getting dirty and bruised. Don't allow a lot of young growth to accumulate in the centre of your fruit trees. Keep the centre well open. Sow imphee, sorghum, panicum, and sweet potatoes. Dig up the crop of English potatoes as soon as ready. They will not keep in the hot ground, and do not let them lie in the sun after digging. Ground the potatoes grew on should be deeply dug, heavily manured, and either dig in salt, lime, or soot. Let it lie for a time, then turn it over again, and get it in good order—the salt, soot, or lime will go a long way towards destroying the grubs that play such havoc with cabbage and cauliflower beds. When the ground has been so treated, it will be in splendid condition to receive the first crop of cabbage and cauliflower plants. We would like to advise you to try a cauliflower called the Primus. It does not grow so tall as the Asiatic, bears a very large white head, and is earlier than the old Asiatic.

NOTES ON ETIQUETTE.

In making an introduction, the gentleman should be introduced to the lady, not the lady to the gentleman.

If both are of the same sex, present the inferior in social position to the superior.

Permission must always be obtained before a gentleman is presented to a lady.

On gentlemen being introduced to each other, they usually acknowledge by a bow, not by offering the hand.

Any one meeting at the house of a mutual friend and not introduced, should not claim acquaintance if they meet elsewhere.

When out walking with a friend, if you meet or are joined by a third party, it is not necessary to introduce one to the other.

Letters of introduction should be sent by post, enclosing your own card, and not by personal delivery. This is, however, not always convenient.

If anxious to honour the person introduced, invite him to dinner and have some friends to meet him.

Morning calls are usually made between the hours of two and four.

When returning purely complimentary calls, you may leave your card without going in.

All visits of congratulations or condolence should be paid within a few days of the event that occasions them.

On making morning calls, a gentleman should not leave his hat in the hall, but take it into the room with him, holding it in his hand during his brief stay. Leave your umbrella in the hall.

When a lady visitor leaves the drawing-room it is polite to rise.

It is bad form to look at your watch during a visit.

In conversation avoid political and religious subjects, and never interrupt another person while speaking. Do not converse in a language that any in the company does not understand. Avoid whispering, as it is bad taste.

When speaking with persons of rank, avoid the too frequent use of their titles; address a nobleman as you would any other gentleman. The King is only addressed as "Sir" in conversation; the Queen as "Madam."

It is customary to write letters of invitation and acceptance in the third person. Invitations are now usually issued in the name of the lady of the house. Letters to strangers should commence with "Sir" or "Madam," and at the close, on the left hand corner of the page, write the name of the individual addressed.

At evening parties, put on your gloves before entering the room, pay your respects to the lady of the house on entering, and do not remain to the close, unless you are on very familiar terms of friendship with the hostess.

Except in a case of necessity, never stop a business man in the street. If you must speak with him, walk on in his direction, state your business briefly, apologising for the detention.

In walking with a gentleman, your superior in age or station, give them the place of honour by taking yourself the outer side of the pavement. In walking with a lady, always take the outer side of the pavement.

"It is in good manners and not in dress,

That the truest gentility lies."—DR. WATTS.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To Clean Kid Gloves.—Make a strong lather with curd soap and warm water, in which steep a small piece of new flannel. Place the glove on a flat unyielding surface—such as the bottom of a dish—and having thoroughly soaped the flannel (when squeezed from the lather), rub the glove till all the dirt be removed, cleaning and re-soaping the flannel from time to time. Care must be taken to omit no part of the glove, by turning the fingers, &c. The gloves must be dried in the sun, or before a moderate fire, and will present the appearance of old parchment. When quite dry, must be gradually pulled out and will look new.

Clean Furniture.—An old cabinet maker says the best preparation for cleaning picture frames and restoring furniture, especially that somewhat marred or scratched, is a mixture of three parts linseed oil and one part spirits of turpentine. It not only covers the disfigured surface, but restores wood to its natural colour, and leaves lustre upon its surface. Put on with a woollen cloth, and when dry, rub with woollen.

To Remove Grease.—Aqua ammonia, two ounces; soft water, one quart; salt-petre, one teaspoonful; shaving soap in shavings, one ounce; mix altogether. Dissolve the soap well, and any grease or dirt that cannot be removed with this preparation cannot be removed at all. Benzine is also considered one of the best grease extractors extant.

Extirpation of Cockroaches.—Common red wafers to be found at any stationers will answer the purpose. Cockroaches eat them and die. Also sprinkle powdered borax plentifully around the house, and renew occasionally; in a short time not a roach will be seen. This is a safe, and if followed up, certain exterminator.

It is said that these vermin are also easily destroyed simply by cutting up green cucumbers at night and placing them about where the roaches commit depredations. What is cut from the cucumbers in preparing them for the table answers the purpose as well, and three applications will destroy all the roaches in the house. Remove the peelings in the morning and renew them at night.

Extirpation of Bed Bugs.—Corrosive sublimate and the white of an egg, beat together and laid with a feather around the crevices of the bedsteads and the sacking is very effectual in destroying bugs in them. Tansy is also said to be very effectual in keeping them away. Strew it under the sacking bottom. The best exterminator is black pulverized helibore root. It destroys them. Place it where the bugs will be likely to crawl.

Rat Killing without Traps or Poison.—Take common sponge dried, cut into small pieces and soak in lard, melted tallow, or meat gravy; place within easy access of the rats. They will eat greedily, and the moisture of the stomach will cause the pieces to swell and kill the rats. Water may be placed within reach, and will hasten results by expanding the sponge.

How to Wash Summer Suits.—Summer suits are nearly all made of white or buff linen, pique, cambric, or muslin, and the art of preserving the new appearance after washing is a matter of the greatest importance. Common washerwomen spoil everything with soda, and nothing is more common than to see the delicate tints of lawn turned into dark blotches and muddy streaks by the ignorance and vandalism of a laundress. It is worth while for ladies to pay attention to this, and insist upon having their summer dresses washed according to the directions which they should be prepared to give their laundress themselves. In the first place the water should be tepid, the soap should not be allowed to touch the fabric; it should be washed and rinsed quick, turned upon the wrong side and hung in the shade to dry, and when starched (in thin boiled but not boiling starch) should be folded in sheets or towels and ironed upon the wrong side as soon as possible. But linen should be washed in water in which hay or a quart bag of bran has been boiled. This last will be found to answer for starch as well, and is excellent for print dresses of all kinds, but a handful of salt is very useful also to set the colours of light cambrics and dotted lawns; and a little ox gall will not only set but brighten yellow and purple tints, and has a good effect upon green.

To keep Butter during Hot Weather.—A simple method of keeping butter during hot weather is to invert a large earthenware crock or flower pot if need be (varying with the size of the vessel containing the butter) over the dish or firkin in which the butter is held. The porousness of the earthenware will keep the butter cool, and all the more so if the pot is wrapped in a wet cloth with a little water in the dish with the butter. Not the porosity of the earthenware, but the rapid absorption of heat by external evaporation causes the butter to become hard.

How to Keep Apples.—There is a very superior way of preserving apples for months. By it, any apple in good condition when packed will be equally good when unpacked, and even those rotting, because not in good condition when put in, will not injure the others. Take fine dry sawdust and place a thin layer on the bottom of a barrel; then place a layer of apples, not close together, and not touching the staves of the barrel; put sawdust liberally over and around, and proceed until a bushel and a-half (or less) are so packed in each barrel. Keep in a cool place. No bruised or mellow apples will be preserved, but they will not communicate rot to their companions. There's money in this applied to choice apples.

Meat Preservative.—To four gallons of water add eight pounds of coarse salt, quarter ounce of potash, two ounces of saltpetre, two pounds of brown sugar. Boil together, skim when cold. Put on this quantity to one hundred pounds of meat. Hams to remain eight weeks. Beef, three weeks. Let the hams dry several days before smoking. Meats of all kinds, salmon and other fish, &c., may be preserved for years by a light application of pyroligneous acid applied with a brush, sealing up in cans as usual. It imparts a splendid flavour to the meat, is very cheap, and is an effectual preservative against loss.

To Cure Rabbitskins.—Put three ounces of alum in a saucepan with a pint of water, and boil gently till dissolved, then add a pint of cold water. When the solution is quite cold put in the skins, which may be kept in the alum water for three days. The solution and the skins should be well stirred up every day. When the skins are taken out they must be nailed on a board to dry or they will shrink.

Ginger Beer.—Take five and a half gallons of water, three-quarter of a pound of ginger root bruised; tartaric acid, half ounce; white sugar, two and half pounds; whites of three eggs well beaten; ten small teaspoonfuls lemon essence; yeast, one gill; boil the root for thirty minutes in a gallon of water; strain off and put the essence in while hot; mix, make over night; in the morning skim and bottle. Keep out all sediment.

Hop Beer.—Hops, six ounces; molasses, five quarts; boil the hops till the strength is out, strain them into a thirty gallon barrel; add the molasses and one teacupful of yeast, and fill up with water; shake it well, and leave the bung out till fermented, which will be in twenty-four hours. Bung up, and it will be fit for use in about three days.

Or mix fourteen pounds of molasses and eleven gallons of water well together, and boil them for two hours with six ounces hops. When quite cool, add a cupful of yeast, and stir it well by a gallon or two at a time. Let it ferment for sixteen hours, in a tub covered with a sack, then put it in a nine gallon cask, and keep it filled up; bung it down for two days, and in seven days it will be fit to drink.

Root Beer.—Water ten gallons, heat to 60deg. Fahrenheit, then add three gallons of molasses; let stand for two hours; pour it into a tub, add powdered or bruised sassafras and winter-green bark, of each half-a-pound; yeast one pint, bruised sarsaparilla root half pound, and water enough to make twenty-five gallons in all. Ferment for twelve hours, then bottle.

Ice Cream.—Have good rich sweet cream, and half pound of loaf sugar to each quart of ice cream or milk. If you cannot get cream, the best imitation is to boil a soft custard, six eggs to a quart of milk (eggs well beaten), or another is made as follows:—Boil one quart of milk and stir into it, whilst boiling, one tablespoonful of arrowroot wet with cold milk. When cold stir into it the yoke of one egg to give it a rich colour. Five minutes boiling is enough for either plan. Put the sugar in after they cool. Keep the same proportions for any amount required, or thus: To six quarts milk add one-half pound Oswego corn and starch first dissolved. Put the starch in one quart of milk, then mix together and simmer a little, sweeten and flavour to taste. The juice of strawberry or raspberry gives a beautiful colour and flavour to ice cream, or about one-half ounce essence or extract to one gallon, or to suit the taste. Have your ice well broken, one quart of salt to a bucket of ice. About half an hour's constant stirring with occasional scraping down and beating together will freeze it.

HOUSEHOLD REMEDIES.

Bunions.—May be checked in their early development by binding the joint with adhesive plaster, and keeping it on as long as any uneasiness is felt. The bandaging should be perfect, and it might be well to extend it round the foot. An inflamed bunion should be poulticed and larger shoes be worn. Iodine twelve grains, lard, or spermaceti ointment half an ounce, makes a grand ointment for bunions. It should be rubbed on gently two or three times a day.

Corns—Cause and Cure.—A thickened state of the scarf-skin, caused by pressure or friction. The part of the skin acted upon becomes hard, and presses upon the sensitive skin within, which endeavouring to relieve itself, produces an additional quantity of scarf-skin. Treatment: Soak the feet in warm water, pare the top of the corn and apply one of the following solvents: 1. Lunar caustic. Moisten the corn and rub it with the caustic. 2. Nitric acid applied with a rod or stick. 3. Strong solution of sub-carbonate of potash. The corn is gradually eaten away and disappears—As corns are the result of friction, they may be prevented or driven away at an early age by anointing them every night and morning with sweet oil, on the same principle that lubrication is applied to axle trees, &c., to prevent friction injuring them.

A Good Corn Cure.—Boil a potato in its skin, and after it is boiled take the skin and put the inside of it to the corn, and leave it on for about twelve hours; at the end of that period the corn will be nearly cured.

Splendid Cough Syrup.—Put one quart of horehound to one quart of water, and boil it down to a pint; add two or three sticks of liquorice and a tablespoonful of essence of lemon. Take a tablespoonful of the syrup three times a day, or as often as the cough is troublesome. This is a valuable receipt.

Dyspepsia.—One of the first things to be attended to is to regulate the bowels, which in this disease are always in a costive state. The best means of keeping them loose is the eating of a handful of clean wheat branonce or twice a day. This is the most simple and efficacious method of cleansing the stomach; it may be eaten from the hand with a few swallows of water to wash it down. Also use, to regulate the stomach and bowels, a teaspoonful of common salt dissolved in half a tumblerful of water—take it in the morning fasting. Avoid rich food and use ships, or brown, bread.

To Get Rid of Freckles.—Muriate of ammonia, half a drachm; lavender water, two drachms; rain water, half a pint. Applied with a sponge two or three times a day.

Snake Bites.—May be comparatively innocuous or rapidly poisonous. Venomous snakes insert their fangs into their victim and introduce the poison to the circulation by means of a preparation in the tooth which is connected with the poison gland. If surgical means are at hand the injured part should be immediately excised, or the poison may be counteracted by the introduction of some strong alkali, such as ammonia, into the wound. Such measures to be successful, however, must be employed without any loss of time. If the poison has entered the circulation strong stimulants should be administered by the mouth, the best of which are alcohol and ammonia. If there is a great prostration the subcutaneous injection of ether may be restored to, but beyond these a much more powerful remedy consists in the subcutaneous injection of strychnine, which would appear to act in direct opposition to that of the poison.

For a Sprained Ankle or Wrist.—Wash the ankle very frequently with cold salt and water, which is far better than warm vinegar or decoctions of herbs. Keep the foot as cool as possible to prevent inflammation, and sit with it elevated on a high cushion. Live on low diet, and take every day some cooling medicine, such as Epsom salts. It cures in a few days.

THE POULTRY YARD.

Hens—To make Lay all the year.—Give each hen half-an-ounce of fresh meat every day, and mix a small quantity of chopped red pepper with their food during the winter. Give plenty of grain, water, gravel, lime, and keep the cocks from them.

To Increase Egg Laying.—The best method is to mix with their food, every other day, about a teaspoonful of ground cayenne pepper to each dozen fowls. While upon this subject, it would be well to say that if your hen lays soft eggs or eggs without shells, you should put plenty of old plaster, egg-shells, or even oyster shells broken up, where they can get at it.

To Fatten Fowls.—Mix together ground rice well scalded with milk, and add some coarse sugar. Feed them with this in the daytime, but not too much at once. Let it be rather thick.

Preserving Eggs.—Put into a tub or vessel, one bushel of quicklime, two pounds of salt, half a pound of cream of tartar, mix all together with as much water as will reduce the mixture to that consistence that it will cause an egg put into it to swim with its top just above the liquid. Keep the eggs therein. Eggs can be kept for two years.

THE FARM.

To Ascertain the Weight of Cattle.—Measure the girth close behind the shoulder and the length from the forepart of the shoulder-blade along the back of the bone at the tail, which is in a vertical line at the buttock, both in feet. Multiply the square of the girth expressed in feet by five times the length, and divide the product by twenty-one; the quotient is the weight, nearly, of the fore quarters, in Imperial stones of 14 pounds avoirdupois. For example, if the girth be 6 feet and the length $5\frac{1}{2}$ feet, we shall have $6 \times 6 = 36$, and $5\frac{1}{2} \times 5 = 26\frac{1}{2}$; then $36 \times 26\frac{1}{2} = 945$, and this divided by 21 gives 45 stone exactly. It is to be observed, however, that in very fat cattle the fore quarters will be one-twentieth more, while in those in a very lean state they will be one-twentieth less than the weight obtained by the rule.

LAND SELECTION IN QUEENSLAND.

The State is, as far as necessary, divided into Land Agents' Districts, in each of which there is a Government Land Office and Land Agent. Plans and information respecting the quality, rents, and prices of lands available for selection may be obtained on personal or written application to the Land Agent of the District in which the land is situated or to the Officer in Charge, Inquiry Office, Department of Public Lands, Brisbane.

Land is opened or made available for selection by proclamation in the Government Gazette. The proclamation, which is made not less than four weeks before the time appointed for the opening, specifies the modes in which the land may be selected, the area, rent, price, etc.

The several modes in which land may be acquired are by—(1) Agricultural Selection, i.e., Agricultural Farms and Agricultural Homesteads; (2) Grazing Selection, i.e., Grazing Farms and Grazing Homesteads; (3) Scrub Selection; (4) Unconditional Selection; and (5) Prickly Pear Selection. The more accessible lands near lines of railway, centres of population, and navigable waters are set apart for agricultural selection in areas up to 1,280 acres, while opportunities of acquiring grazing selections in areas up to 60,000 acres are given over a great extent of Queensland territory within accessible distances of the seaboard and the various lines of railway.

No person who is not a British subject by birth or naturalisation may apply for or acquire a selection other than a Scrub Selection; and, except in the case of Scrub Selections, Unconditional Selections, and Prickly Pear Selections, no person who is under the age of sixteen years, or who seeks to acquire the land as the agent or servant or trustee of another, will be allowed to select. A single girl under the age of twenty-one years is debarred from selecting an Agricultural Homestead or Grazing Homestead. A married woman is not competent to select an Agricultural Homestead or a Grazing Homestead, unless she has obtained an order for judicial separation or an order protecting her separate property, or is living apart from her husband and has been specially empowered by the Land Court to select a Homestead. A married woman may, however, acquire a Grazing Homestead by transfer after the expiry of five years of the term of lease.

Applications for selections must be made in the prescribed form, in triplicate, and be lodged with the Land Agent for the district in which the land is situated. They must be signed by the applicant, but may be lodged in the Land Office by his duly constituted attorney, and must be accompanied by a deposit of a year's rent and one-fifth of the survey fee. Ordinarily, applications take priority in the order of their being lodged with the Land Agent, but applications lodged prior to the time proclaimed as that at which land is to be open for selection are regarded as simultaneous with those lodged at that time.

Where land is open for different modes of selection alternatively, priority among simultaneous applications for the same land is given to an application for it as an Agricultural Homestead as against an application for it as an Agricultural Farm; to an application for it as an Agricultural Farm as against an application for it as an Unconditional Selection; and, if the land is open for Grazing Selection, to an application for it as a Grazing Homestead as against an application for it as a Grazing Farm.

Priority is sometimes specially secured to an applicant for an Agricultural Homestead at whose request unsurveyed land is opened for Selection. A condition precedent to the granting of such priority is that a deposit at the rate of 3d. per acre shall have been made with the request, which should be made to the Land Commissioner of the district. Priority, granted under these circumstances, does not extend beyond the earliest time at which the land becomes available.

In the case of simultaneous applications for the same land, as an Agricultural Farm, priority is secured by an applicant other than a married woman or a single girl under twenty-one years of age, who, when making application, undertakes to personally reside on the land during the first five years of the lease. In other cases of simultaneous applications for the same land by the same mode of selection, priority is determined by lot, unless in the case of simultaneous applications for the same land as a Grazing Selection, Unconditional Selection, or Prickly Pear Selection, a higher rental is tendered than that proclaimed. In that event the highest tender secures priority.

When an application has been accepted by the Land Commissioner and approved by the Court, and the applicant has paid for any improvements that may be on the land, he becomes entitled to receive a license to occupy the land in the case of an Agricultural Selection or a Grazing Selection, or a lease in the case of a Scrub Selection, Unconditional Selection, or Prickly Pear Selection. Within six months after the issue of a license, the selector must commence to occupy the land, and must thereafter continue to occupy it in the manner prescribed.

AGRICULTURAL SELECTIONS.

AGRICULTURAL FARMS.

The largest area that may be acquired by any one person as an Agricultural Farm is 1,280 acres. If the same person is the selector of both an Agricultural Farm and an Agricultural Homestead, the joint area must not exceed 1,280 acres. The purchasing price may range from 10s. an acre upwards, as may be declared by proclamation. The term is twenty years. The annual rent is one-fortieth of the purchasing price, and the payments are credited as part of the price.

The land must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally on it or by his manager or agent doing so. Within five years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time as the Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, or make substantial and permanent improvments on it equal in value to such a fence. On the completion of the improvements the selector becomes entitled to a lease of the farm, and may thereafter mortgage it; or, with the permission of the Minister, may subdivide or transfer it; or, with the approval of the Court, may underlet it.

The selector of an Agricultural Farm, who has obtained priority by undertaking to reside personally thereon during the first five years of the lease, must comply strictly with that undertaking, and is not allowed during such period to mortgage, transfer, or assign the holding.

After the improvements have been effected, any lessee (whether he acquired by selection or transfer) who has held the farm for five years and has duly fulfilled the condition of occupation, may pay the part of the purchasing price then remaining unpaid and obtain a deed of grant in fee-simple. After ten years of the term have elapsed, the purchase may be completed by the then registered lessee irrespective of the time he has held it.

AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEADS.

Land open for selection as Agricultural Farms is not available for Agricultural Homesteads unless so proclaimed. The area allowed to be selected as an Agricultural Homestead varies with the quality of the land, and is fixed by proclamation within the following limits, viz.—160 acres in the case of land valued for Agricultural Farm Selection at not less than £1 per acre; 320 acres in the case of land valued at less than £1 but not less than 15s. an acre; and 640 acres in the case of land valued at less than 15s. an acre. The price for a Homestead is 2s. 6d. per acre, the annual rent 3d. an acre, and the term ten years.

The land must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally thereon.

Within five years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time as the Land Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, or make substantial and permanent improvements on it equal in value to such a fence. On the completion of the improvements the selector becomes entitled to a lease.

At any time after five years from the commencement of the term, on the selector proving that the conditions have been duly performed and that the sum expended in improvements on the land has been at the rate of 10s., 5s., or 2s. 6d. an acre respectively according to the quality of the land, he may pay up the remaining rent so as to make his total payments equal to 2s. 6d. an acre, and obtain a deed of grant of the land in fee-simple.

The selectors of a group of two or more Agricultural Homesteads may associate together for mutual assistance, and on making proof of bona fides to the Commissioner, may receive from him a Special License enabling not less than one-half of the whole number to perform the conditions of occupation and improvement for the group. The residence may be upon any one or more of the Homesteads, and if more than 10s. has been expended in improvements on any Homestead while the Special License is in force with respect to it, the surplus may be attributed to the others.

GRAZING SELECTIONS.

GRAZING FARMS.

The greatest area which may be applied for as a Grazing Farm under any circumstances is 60,000 acres, but as in the case of other forms of selection each proclamation opening land for grazing selection declares the maximum area which may be selected in the area to which it applies. In the event of lands open under different proclamations, and of a total area exceeding 20,000 acres being applied for by the same person, a rental limitation of £200 per annum must be observed as well as the maximum areas declared by the several proclamations. Thus, of lands open at 2d. per acre, the greatest area obtainable would be 24,000 acres; at 1½d. per acre, 32,000 acres, and so on. The term may be fourteen, twenty-one, or twenty-eight years, as the opening proclamation may declare. The annual rent for the first period of seven years may range from ½d. per acre upwards, as may be proclaimed or tendered. The rent for each subsequent period of seven years will be determined by the Court.

A Grazing Farm must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally on it, or by his manager or agent doing so.

Within three years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time, as the Land Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, and must keep it so fenced during the whole of the term. In the case of two or more contiguous farms, not exceeding in the aggregate 20,000 acres, the Court may by Special License permit the selectors to fence only the outside boundaries of the whole area. If the Proclamation declaring the land open for selection so prescribed, the enclosing fence must be of such character as to prevent the passage of rabbits. In the case of a group of contiguous grazing farms not exceeding eight in number, or 200 square miles in total area, and which are situated within a district constituted under "The Rabbit Boards Act, 1896," the Court may by Special License permit the enclosure of the whole area with a fence of such character as to prevent the passage of rabbits, instead of requiring each farm to be separately enclosed.

The selectors of a group of two or more grazing farms, the area of none of which exceeds 2,560 acres, may associate together for mutual assistance, and on making proof of bona fides to the Commissioner, may receive from him a Special License enabling not less than one-half of the whole number by their personal residence on some one or more of the farms to perform the condition of occupation in respect of all the farms.

When a Grazing Farm is enclosed in the manner required, the selector becomes entitled to a lease of it, and may thereafter mortgage it; or, with the permission of the Minister, may subdivide or transfer it; or, with the approval of the Court, may underlet it.

GRAZING HOMESTEADS.

Lands open for selection as Grazing Farms must also be open for selection as Grazing Homesteads, and at the same rental and for the same term of lease. As already stated, an application to select as a Grazing Homestead takes precedence of a simultaneous application to select the same land as a Grazing Farm. The conditions and other provisions abovementioned in respect of Grazing Farms are applicable also to Grazing Homesteads, with the following exceptions:—

- (1.) During the first five years of the term of a Grazing Homestead the condition of occupation must be performed by the continuous personal residence of the selector on the land.
- (2.) Before the expiration of five years from the commencement of the term, or the death of the original lessee, whichever first happens, a Grazing Homestead is not capable of being mortgaged, assigned, or transferred.

SCRUB SELECTIONS.

Lands entirely or extensively overgrown by scrub may be opened for selection as Scrub Selections up to 10,000 acres in area and with a term of thirty years. These are classed according to the proportion covered by scrub, and for periods varying from five to twenty years, according to classification, no rent is chargeable. During this first period the selector must clear the whole of the scrub in equal proportions each year, and must keep it cleared, and must enclose the selection with a good and substantial fence. The annual rent payable for the subsequent periods ranges from 4d. to 1d. per acre. A negotiable lease is issued to the selector when his application has been approved by the Court.

UNCONDITIONAL SELECTIONS.

The greatest area allowed to be acquired by any one person as an Unconditional Selection in one district is 1,280 acres; the price per acre ranges from 13s. 4d. upwards and is payable in twenty annual instalments. As the term implies, no other conditions than the payment of the purchase money are attached to this mode of selection. A negotiable lease for the term of twenty years is issued to the selector when his application to select has been approved by the Court. A deed of grant may be obtained at any time on payment of the balance of the purchasing price.

PRICKLY PEAR SELECTION.

PRICKLY PEAR INFESTED SELECTIONS.

Prickly pear infested selections comprise lands heavily infested with prickly pear. The area must not exceed 5,000 acres.

The term is fifteen years with a peppercorn rental for the first ten years, and an annual rent of one-fifth of the purchasing price for the remaining five years. During the first ten years of the term the land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear—one-tenth during each year—and must be kept free for the remainder of the term. The freehold may be obtained within six months after the expiration of the term on proving compliance with the conditions of the lease.

PRICKLY PEAR FRONTAGE SELECTIONS.

Prickly pear frontage selections are confined to proclaimed prickly pear frontage areas, comprising lands free from or only lightly infested with prickly pear, but which adjoin and do not extend for more than two miles from lands heavily infested. The greatest area allowed is 5,000 acres.

The term is ten years, with a peppercorn rental for the first five years, and an annual rent of one-fifth of the purchasing price during the remaining five years. During the first five years of the term the land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear—one-fifth during each year—and must be kept clear during the balance of the term.

The freehold may be obtained within six months after the expiration of the term on proving compliance with the conditions of the lease.

PRICKLY PEAR (BONUS) SELECTIONS.

Provision is made by "The Prickly Pear Selections Act of 1901" for a third form of prickly pear selection, under which the freehold of the land, and a bonus in addition, are granted in return for the complete eradication of the pear. The maximum amount per acre payable as bonus is stated in the opening proclamation, but each applicant must lodge a tender specifying a bonus per acre not in excess of that mentioned in the proclamation. In the case of simultaneous applications for the same land, priority attaches to the lowest tender. The size of the portions opened must not exceed 2,560 acres. The term of lease is ten years, at a peppercorn rental throughout. The land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear during the first seven years—one-seventh each year—and the clearing must be maintained until the expiry of the lease. One-seventh of the bonus payable may be claimed at the end of each of the first seven years of the term, on proof to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the condition of eradication has been complied with. The freehold may be obtained within six months after the expiry of the term, without any cash payment, on proving compliance with the conditions of the lease.

REPURCHASED LANDS.

Land repurchased by the Crown under the provisions of "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Acts of 1894 and 1899," are first made available for Agricultural Farm Selection, on a term of twenty years. The rent to be paid for the first year is equal to £10 for every £100 of the purchasing price, and (no payment being required the second year) an annual payment, 27 19s. for every £100, continued from the third to the twentieth year will, at the end of the term, have paid off the principal sum and interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum. If the payment of the balance of the purchase-money is made before the end of the term a rebate in interest is made accordingly. The selection must be occupied during the term by the residence of the selector or his registered agent. Land remaining open for Agricultural farm selection for three months may thereafter be opened for Unconditional selection at the same price.

OTHER MODES OF ACQUISITION.

Crown lands may be acquired in fee-simple by auction purchase in areas up to 5,120 acres. There is no limitation to the area of freehold land which may be held by any one person. The minimum purchasing price for agricultural land bought at auction is £1 per acre, and for other land 10s. per acre.

Opportunity is also afforded for the occupation of Crown lands for pastoral purpose, from year to year under an occupation license, or for a fixed term not exceeding 42 years under pastoral lease. There is no limitation to the area which may be held by one person under either of these tenures.

REGULATIONS FOR CARRIAGE BY RAIL OF SELECTORS AND THEIR EFFECTS.

(Published in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, 16th November, 1902.)

This Certificate shall be handed in at the railway station at which the journey is commenced when application is made for the usual railway ticket. For such ticket the ordinary fare must be paid.

2. If the intending selector subsequently selects an Agricultural Selection he will on application to the Under Secretary for Public Lands, receive further Certificates (Forms B, C, D, E) entitling him, on presentation of them to the respective officials mentioned below, to the concessions stated in each case respectively:—

Certificate.	To whom to be presented.	Concession.
B	Secretary to the Commissioner for Railways	A refund of the railway fare paid in respect of the journey mentioned in Certificate A

E	Ditto	A reduction of 25 per cent. on the ordinary classification rates for fencing and building material in respect of the carriage of any such material intended for use in improving the selection. This concession will apply also to live stock to a limited extent, and to such other articles as the Minister for Lands may consider it necessary for the selector to use in working his selection.

3. The concessions granted in virtue of Certificates B, C, D, and E must be availed of within six months from the issue to the selector of a license to occupy the land.

4. For the purpose of free carriage by rail, the term "ordinary household furniture" will not include musical instruments, wardrobes, marble articles, bookcases, or mirrors (excepting toilet glasses). "Agricultural implements" will not include steam-engines or other motive power, or instruments thereof.

6. Selectors taking advantage of the concessions provided for in these Regulations will be required to pay all charges for lighterage, cartage, etc.

PASSENGERS.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Children under five years of age will be permitted to travel free. Children of five years of age and upwards, but under fourteen years of age, will be permitted to travel at half the full fares.

PASSENGERS NOT TO TRAVEL WITHOUT TICKETS OR PASSES.

Any person who travels by railway unless he is provided with—

- (A) A proper ticket issued by an officer or duly authorised agent of the Commissioner; or
- (B) A free railway pass issued by an officer of the Commissioner duly authorised in that behalf; shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £16.

AVAILABILITY OF SINGLE TICKETS.

Single tickets for distances of 50 miles and under are available only for the date on which the tickets are issued.

Single tickets for distances over 50 miles and under 150 miles are available for seven days after date of issue, and for distances 150 miles and over fourteen days; but in either case the journey must be commenced on the date of issue.

AVAILABILITY OF RETURN TICKETS.

Return tickets will be issued between all railway stations, and shall be available as follows:—10 miles and under, day of issue only, except when no train is available for return, in which case they are available for the following day; 11 miles to 50 miles, 2 weeks, exclusive of the day of issue; 51 miles to 150 miles, 1 calendar month, exclusive of the day of issue; 151 miles to 300 miles, 3 calendar months, exclusive of the day of issue; over 300 miles, 6 calendar months, exclusive of the day of issue.

The forward journey must be commenced on the date of issue and completed within the period for which a single ticket is available.

Return tickets between South Brisbane, Vulture Street, Gloucester Street, or Park Road and Southport, and Mount Morgan and Tanby, are available for one calendar month.

Return tickets to any of the following watering places from stations under 11 miles distant, viz.:—Wynnum, Wynnum South, Manly, Birkdale, Wellington Point, Ormiston, West Cleveland, Cleveland, Southport, Nudgee, Sandgate, Pialba, Broadmount, or Emu Park shall be available for return for one week.

BREAK OF JOURNEY.

Passengers holding return tickets for any distance may be allowed to break their journey at any station, provided the journey is completed within the period for which the tickets are available. But the forward journey of return tickets must be commenced on date of issue, and completed within the period for which a single ticket is available, with the exception that 7 days will be allowed to complete the forward journey of return tickets between Cairns and Mareeba.

Any passenger desirous of breaking his journey must deposit his ticket (for which a receipt will be given if required) with the station-master at each station where the journey is broken, the ticket being returned to him on resuming his journey.

Passengers holding excursion tickets to places distant 200 miles and over may break the forward journey, provided they travel not less than 100 miles on the day of issue. The forward journey must, however, be completed within the period for which a single ticket is available. In all other cases, passengers holding excursion tickets are not allowed to break their forward journey unless it is impossible to complete it on the day the tickets are issued, in which case they must proceed by the first available train thereafter; or, to avoid a break, they may be permitted to obtain and use their tickets on the day preceding the day appointed for their issue. The return journey, however, may be broken as stated above.

EXCESSING PASSENGERS, CHANGE OF CLASS, RETURN TICKETS, &c.

Passengers travelling first class with second class tickets—

- (a) Ordinary Single Tickets.—Passengers travelling in a first-class carriage with second-class tickets shall be charged the difference between first and second class single fare, and for which a book-ticket, endorsed "2nd to 1st class," shall be issued.
- (b) Ordinary Return Tickets.—Passengers travelling in a first-class carriage with second class tickets on the forward or return journey shall be charged half the difference between first-class and second-class ordinary return fare, and for which a book-ticket, endorsed "2nd to 1st class," shall be issued.
- (c) Excursion Tickets.—Passengers travelling in a first class carriage with second class ticket on the forward or return journey shall be charged the difference between the first and second class ordinary single fares.

These charges only apply where passengers pay excess from the station at which they commence their journey to destination station.

In cases where passengers holding either single, return, or excursion tickets travel only a portion of the journey in a superior class, such portion of the journey shall be charged at the difference between first and second class single fare over the section travelled.

CONVEYANCE OF PARCELS BY MAIL COACHES.

delivery to consignee. The Postal Department will not insist on prepayment of the postage on parcels received from the railway, but will not pay any railway charge.

This regulation does not apply to parcels exceeding 11 lb. in weight or to parcels which, on account of their size or contents, the postmaster must, in accordance with the parcel post regulations, refuse to accept.

STAMPED PARCELS.

The following are the regulations under which stamped parcels are carried on all Government railways within the State:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS FOR ISSUE OF ADHESIVE PARCELS STAMPS.

- (A) Adhesive parcel stamps, similar to postage stamps, will be issued at all railway stations and gates where officials are in charge.
- (B) When a package such as fish, butter, eggs, milk, cream, fresh meat, &c. &c., will not allow a stamp to properly adhere, a label must be secured to the package, on which the stamp can be properly affixed.
- (C) When the stamps affixed are not of the full value for the weight or distance according to table of rates, and the sender omits or refuses to affix the additional stamps necessary, the stamp may either be cancelled and the parcel forwarded and surcharged at destination, or the Commissioner may refuse to forward the same.
- (D) All stamped parcels except stamped newspaper parcels must be booked.

All parcels must, to admit of their being booked, be at stations fifteen minutes before the advertised time of departure of the train by which they are required to be forwarded. The Commissioner will not be liable for the loss of any parcel which is not booked.

When two or more parcels are consigned to the same person the parcels rate will be charged on each separate parcel, except in the case of newspapers, fish, fruit, ice, fresh meat, bread, butter in boxes, and vegetables, which will be charged as for the gross weight, provided always that when the weight thereof exceeds 1 cwt. the charge for each succeeding hundredweight or part thereof shall not be in excess of the rate for the first hundredweight.

Packed parcels—i.e., parcels addressed to separate consignees, and packed in hampers, crates, bags, cases, or other packages—will be charged quadruple rates, and the onus of proving that the parcels are not packed will rest with consignees or consignors.

Parcels conveyed by passenger trains shall, if not removed from the Parcels Office on arrival, be subject to the same charges for storage as if deposited in a cloak-room.

The Commissioner will not be liable for the loss of or injury to any parcel when the value exceeds £10, unless at the time of delivery thereof at the station for the purpose of being carried, the value and contents of the parcel have been declared by the person delivering the same, and a special risk rate has been paid to and accepted by the officer in charge.

Registration.—Any letter, letter card, post card, packet, or newspaper, complying with the Regulations relating thereto, and bearing the registration fee of 3d. in addition to the correct amount of postage shall be accepted for registration. The registration of an article renders its transmission much more secure, and the loss of a registered article is a very rare occurrence; the public are advised to register all articles containing anything of an important nature, and when sending bank notes, drafts, etc., to take note of the numbers and other particulars thereof.

Articles intended for registration should on no account be dropped into a pillar-receiver or posting-box, but must be presented at a post or receiving office during ordinary office hours, and a receipt for same obtained on the proper form.

Where any postmaster or officer of the Post Office has reasonable cause to believe that any unregistered letter or packet contains any valuable enclosure other than money orders or bills of exchange, acceptances, or promissory notes payable to order, cheques, or postal notes or postage stamps not exceeding five shillings in value, such postmaster or officer may register such letter or packet, and charge it with double the prescribed fee for registration, and the sum to be so paid shall be written on such letter or packet by the postmaster or officer of the Post Office who registers the same, and such fee shall be paid by the person to whom it is addressed before delivery, unless such person, before delivery, opens the letter in the presence of some postmaster or officer of the Post Office, and it is found not to contain any valuable enclosure, in which case such fee shall not be charged. Poisons must also be registered in Queensland.

The sender of a registered article may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery to the addressee or other person to whom it is delivered by paying in advance, at the time of registration, a fee of 2d. in addition to the postage and registration fee.

The sender must enter, in the form provided for the purpose, both his own name and address, and the name and address of the person to whom the article is sent, and he must also affix to the form in payment of the fee, a postage stamp of the value of 2½, which the postmaster or other officer should cancel in the ordinary way.

Post Office Express Delivery Service by Telegraph Messengers.

Letters and packets not exceeding 8 ounces in weight may be specially delivered as follows, namely:—

- (1) By special messenger all the way.—To secure this service, letters and packets must be handed in at an "Express Delivery" Post Office. The fee is 4d. per mile for the first mile, and thereafter 2d. per half-mile up to 2 miles, with a minimum of 5d. including postage.
- (2) By special messenger after transmission by post.—For this service a letter or packet may be posted at any post or receiving office, or in any letter-box or posting receptacle, and be "expressed" on reaching the delivery office, providing such office is an express delivery office. The fee of 4d. in addition to the ordinary postage must be prepaid by affixed postage stamps.
- (3) By special delivery in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman.—By this means any person may make an arrangement with the postmaster of any express delivery office to secure the immediate delivery of his own correspondence on its arrival. Letters or packets must not weigh more than 8oz. each, or 4lb. in the aggregate, and the full express fee of 4d. a mile or fraction of a mile must be paid for one article, and 4d. for every additional article beyond the first.
- (4) Special delivery by travelling mail officers at all railway stations where the mail trains are timed to stop without passing through the local post office or waiting local delivery. The delivery fee of 4d. must be affixed by postal stamp together with the ordinary postage and the usual late fee, and letters or packets so stamped may be accepted by any travelling mail officer for delivery at any railway platform where the mail train is timed to stop.

NEWSPAPERS.

Definition of Newspaper and Supplement.

A newspaper shall mean any publication known and recognised as a newspaper in the generally accepted sense of the word, and printed and published within the Commonwealth for sale if—

- (a) it consists in substantial part of news and articles relating to current topics, or of religious, technical, or practical information; and (b) it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than one month; and (c) the full title and date of publication are printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication are printed at the top of every subsequent page.

A publication printed on paper and issued as a supplement to a newspaper shall be deemed to be a supplement and to be part of the newspaper if—

- (a) it consists in substantial part of reading matter other than advertisements, or of engravings, prints, lithographs, or coloured supplements; and (b) it is enclosed in each posted copy of the newspaper with which it is issued; and (c) it has the title of the newspaper with which it is issued printed on the top of each page of letterpress; and (d) it is not of a size or form which makes it inconvenient for carriage or delivery by post.

Registration of Newspapers.

The proprietor, printer, or publisher of any newspaper, as defined by Section 28 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1901, may register it at the General Post Office of any State subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) The application for registration must be made in writing. (b) It must contain a description of the newspaper to be registered, and show at what intervals the same is or is intended to be published. (c) It must be accompanied by a copy of the newspaper to be registered, and a fee of 5s.

The Deputy Postmaster-General of such State may from time to time, subject to appeal as to which see Guide) revise the register, and may call upon the proprietor, printer, or publisher of any publication, a posted copy of which contains indecent or obscene matter, or which by reason of the proportion of advertisements to other matter therein or for any other reason is not within the foregoing definition, to show cause why such publication should not be removed from the register, and if sufficient cause be not shown he may remove it accordingly, and any publication for the time being on the register shall be deemed a registered newspaper. Publishers of registered newspapers are required to print on the first page of each copy issued the words "Registered at the General Post Office," for transmission by post as a newspaper."

No publication which after the expiration of one month from the 1st December, 1901, is tendered for transmission at any Post Office in the Commonwealth shall be sent by post as a newspaper unless the foregoing provisions have been complied with.

Any proposed change in the form of a newspaper must be submitted for the consideration of the Deputy Postmaster-General.

Any Deputy Postmaster-General may refuse to transmit or deliver any issue of a publication if such issue contains indecent or obscene matter.

Any posted newspaper found to contain indecent or obscene matter may be destroyed by order of the Postmaster-General.

A copy of each issue of every registered newspaper in Queensland must be sent to the Deputy Postmaster-General, at Brisbane, and it shall not be necessary to prepay such copies.

All unregistered or irregularly-posted newspapers, and all newspapers having any matter which is not a supplement accompanying them, shall be treated as packets.

General Regulations.

A newspaper may be sent either with or without a cover but must be open at both ends, and there shall not be in or upon any such newspaper or the cover thereof any communication, character, figure, letter, or number (other than the words "newspaper only"; or a line drawn through any report, article, or paragraph therein; the printed title of such newspaper, the printed names, occupations, and places of business of the printer, publisher, and vendor thereof, the name, occupation, and address of the person to whom it is sent and the name of the person who sends the same), nor shall anything other than a supplement be enclosed in, or with, or accompany such newspaper or cover, otherwise such newspaper shall not be transmitted or delivered.

Provided always that any newspaper bearing on the cover or outside of the fold, any printed matter, not permitted for newspapers, may be transmitted at the rate charged for "printed papers."

If a newspaper addressed to any place within the Commonwealth be found to contain writing or any illegal enclosure, it may be forwarded to its destination charged according to its weight, with the full amount of postage at the rate to which the enclosure would properly be subjected; but if the newspaper be addressed to any place beyond the Commonwealth, it shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office. This regulation shall apply to any newspaper whether posted in the Commonwealth or received from places beyond.

Newspapers except those forwarded in bulk, addressed to several persons, to be delivered separately at each address, must not be tied up in bundles, and each newspaper must bear the proper postage.

Two or more newspapers to the same address can be tied together, but the outside newspaper or wrapper must bear on its face or addressed side the full postage for each paper, and the parcel should be tied so that the number of papers can be counted.

Newspapers (not being those forwarded in bulk) made up in packets bearing the same address can be transmitted at printed-paper rate of postage, but the weight of any such packet must not exceed 5lb.

Collected numbers of a newspaper shall not be transmitted through the post as a single newspaper, but postage must be paid on each copy contained therein.

When, owing to a great influx of newspapers, the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole were dealt with without distinction, newspapers may be kept back until a later despatch or delivery.

Newspaper contents bills are not admissible at newspaper rate, but must be paid for at packet rate. They may, however, if properly addressed and having the requisite postage affixed, be placed under the string of the bundle of newspapers to which they refer, thus securing their delivery with the newspapers.

PACKETS.

Packets may consist of Commercial Papers, Printed Papers, or Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise as hereinafter defined.

Commercial Papers.

Commercial papers include all papers and documents not wholly printed, which have not the character of actual or personal correspondence, such as—Acceptances, accounts, invoices, receipts, bankers' packets, bank pass-books, or pass-books or cards connected with a Society, bills of exchange, bills of lading, drafts, copies of telegrams used as vouchers, drawings (not wholly printed), examination paper (corrections allowed), insurance documents (policies, etc.), invoices, legal documents (affidavits, briefs, deeds, depositions, etc.), manuscript or forms filled up in writing for printing or publication, maps (not wholly printed), music (written), notice of meetings, obliterated postage stamps, pay-sheets, plans (not wholly printed), prices current, promissory-notes signed or unsigned, proxy forms or notices, rate notices, receipts, returns or periodical statements, Savings Bank forms forwarded from a public department, Savings Bank acknowledgments closed or open, scrip, ships' manifests, specifications, spent letters (that is, letters which have clearly served their original purpose, and are at least two months old), stock sheets, travellers' cards, circulars or orders, travelling stock notices, way-bills, and other similar articles.

Printed Papers of all kinds except Newspapers.

Printed papers include all printed matter (except newspapers), such as books, magazines, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, circulars (wholly printed), proofs of printing, papers impressed with points in relief for the use of the blind, engravings, photographs, and albums containing photographs, pictures, drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, and similar articles, whether loose or in book form. Printed patterns usually sent in or with a magazine or journal of fashion printed in the Commonwealth of Australia from type set up therein, or from stereotyped plates made therefrom, may be considered as part of such magazine or journal.

The following may also be allowed to pass as printed papers, viz.:—Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the type-writer, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from written or typewritten originals, may be transmitted at the "Printed Papers" rate of postage, provided they are handed in at the counter of a Post Office, and at least twenty copies, precisely identical are posted at the same time. Each cover must be marked by the sender "20 posted."

All printed matter with written additions, corrections, or alterations must be sent as commercial papers, but writing in the nature of a letter or personal communication is not permissible, and if any such writing appear on the article the latter may be charged as an insufficiently prepaid letter.

Cards bearing the inscription "Post Card" shall not be allowed to pass as printed papers.

Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise.

The following and similar articles may be forwarded under this class, viz.:—Glass, merchandise, mineral specimens, natural history specimens (such as dried or preserved animals or plants, geological specimens, etc., when sent for no commercial purpose), liquids, oils, and fatty substances, ointment, soft soap, resin, dry powders, whether dyes or not, paper, parohment or vellum, patterns, live bees and live but harmless entomological specimens, samples, seeds, wedding cake (securely packed). Patterns and samples may contain the name and commercial style of the sender, the address of the person for whom they are intended, the manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, prices, and indications relative to weight or measurement and dimensions, or to the quantity to be disposed of, or such as are necessary to determine the origin and the nature of the goods.

General Packet Regulations.

The maximum weight for a packet of commercial papers or printed papers shall be 5lb.; and for patterns, samples, and merchandise, 1lb. No packet may exceed 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in depth or breadth, or if in a roll 2 feet 6 inches in length, or be of inconvenient form.

Wholly unpaid or insufficient prepaid packets posted in the Commonwealth for delivery therein may be forwarded to destination charged with double the deficiency.

A packet may be sent through the post either without a cover (when it must not be fastened with anything adhesive), or in a cover entirely open at one end or side, or with the flap left unsealed, or fastened with a binder, or tied with string, so as to permit of easy withdrawal of the contents.

PRIVATE MAIL BAGS.

A private mail bag may be made up for any person, or for a number of persons, residing on a mail route, but beyond a mile from a post office, subject to the following Regulations:—

1. The charge for making up a private bag shall be £2 per annum, payable in advance.
2. Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following.
3. The bag, which must be of leather or strong canvas, must be provided at the cost of the person requiring it, and be large enough to contain all articles sent and received by post; if furnished with a lock, two keys must be provided—one for the postmaster and the other for the owner.
4. The postmaster must lock or seal the bag for despatch, and it must be returned in like manner; if a seal is used, the impression must be made known to the postmaster.
5. The bag may contain postal articles for all persons in the employ of the proprietor, or who, with the written consent of the proprietor of the bag, give written authority to the postmaster to enclose them in such bag. The person who pays for the bag shall be responsible for the unpaid postage on all postal articles contained in the bag. He must furnish receipts for such of its contents as may have been registered, and forward to the post office acknowledgments of delivery, duly signed by the addressees. The proprietor of the bag must return all correspondence for persons who have left his station or place, and also any letters, etc., enclosed in error. Every bag must have printed upon it, or upon a leather or metal label, securely attached to the bag, the name of the owner, or the place where it is to be delivered, as well as the name of the post office with which it is exchanged. When a bag is made up for a number of persons the name of one of the number, to whom the bag may be addressed, must be specified. Telegrams enclosed in a private bag may be transmitted free of postage; but other correspondence so enclosed and intended for delivery at the township where the bag is opened or for onward despatch, must bear the correct amount of postage payable thereon.
6. In case of non-payment of postage or detention of receipts or acknowledgments for registered articles, the postmaster may decline to forward any more articles of those classes.
7. A contractor is bound to convey and deliver, free of charge, all private bags given him by the postmaster or under his instruction, but he is not required to deviate from the usual mail route or road, unless instructed by the Deputy Postmaster-General, and must on no account be delayed. Should the return bag not be ready at the appointed time and place, the contractor must not wait for it.

Private Boxes.

Locked Private Boxes may be rented at the General Post Office, and where provided at other post offices, on payment, in advance, of a fee of £1, £2, or £3 per annum, according to the size of box required. Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following. Two keys shall be supplied with each box, but a fee of 1s. shall be charged for the use of each additional key supplied, and keys must not be obtained elsewhere than from the Department. On a box-holder relinquishing the use of a box he shall be required to, at once, return all keys supplied to him, as they are the property of the Postmaster-General, otherwise he shall be charged the rental fee for the box until they are returned. If a key be lost, information must at once be given to the officer in charge of the local post office and the remaining key or keys returned to such officer when a new lock, for which a charge of 5s. shall be made, will be fitted in the box, and two keys supplied. The Postmaster-General may refuse to let a private box to any person or persons, and may cancel the tenancy of a private box at any time, if he considers such box is intended to be, or is being used for objectionable purposes. Private boxes shall be let only on the foregoing conditions, and upon any breach thereof the Postmaster-General may at once withdraw permission for the use of a box.

NOTE.—It materially facilitates the sorting, and consequently the delivery, of correspondence when it bears as portion of the address the number of the box. The Postmaster-General, therefore, invites the assistance and co-operation of correspondents and box-holders in this regard.

PARCELS POST.

LIMIT OF WEIGHT AND SIZE.—Parcels not exceeding 11lb. in weight, 3 feet 6 inches in length, or 6 feet in length and girth combined, may be accepted for transmission from and to all Parcel Post Offices in the Commonwealth, served by railway, coach, or steamboat. Parcels from or to Parcel Post Offices within the Commonwealth, not served by railway, coach, or steamboat, must not exceed 3lb. in weight; should a parcel be received exceeding that weight addressed to a place to which it is not transmissible, it must be forwarded to the nearest Parcel Post Office on the mail route, served by railway, coach, or steamboat, and the addressee be duly advised thereof. The Inland Parcel Post is not at present in operation in Western Australia, and parcels are not conveyed by horse services in Queensland or South Australia.

Parcels exceeding 11lb. in weight or of greater dimensions than those prescribed shall not be accepted for transmission through the post. Any such parcels which may be irregularly posted must not be forwarded to destination, but, if practicable, returned to the sender.

The postage must be fully prepaid by means of adhesive postage stamps, which the sender or person handing in the parcel must affix either close to the address on the wrapper, or to a label, obtainable at any post office. If the contents of a parcel be of a fragile nature, or postage stamps will not readily adhere to the wrapper, such stamps must be affixed to a tie-on label attached to the parcel. Postal officials must not affix postage stamps to the labels or covers of parcels.

In addition to the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, every parcel must bear the name and address of the sender on the wrapper thus:—From _____ of _____
The contents of parcels must be securely packed and closed in such a manner as to preserve them from injury and from injuring other parcels. Parcels containing—must be so securely packed as to prevent the contents from escaping and the covers or vessels in which they are enclosed must be sufficiently strong to prevent breakage in transmission. The word "Fragile" or "Perishable," as the case may be, and the nature of the covering or vessel, and contents, must be indorsed on the outer wrapper. The edges and points of all sharp instruments must be protected, and articles which are likely to injure other articles must be packed in separate parcels. When considered necessary by the Postmaster-General, hermetically-sealed tins, and wooden packing-boxes, with a sufficient quantity of absorbent matter, must be used.

- (a) fragile articles—millinery, toys, musical instruments, etc.; (b) perishable articles—eggs, butter, flowers, fish, etc.; (c) liquids or semi-liquids—medicines, oils, paints, jellies, etc.

The wrappers of parcels which have become torn or damaged in transit must be made as secure as practicable. If the address of any parcel be rendered illegible, such parcel must, if possible, be returned to the sender.

A parcel intended for transmission by parcel post must not be posted in a posting box or pillar, but must be handed in at a parcel post office, and the officer to whom it is handed must check the weight, size, and postage, before accepting it; if it be not fully prepaid, or exceed the limit of weight or size it must not be accepted.

Where satisfactory arrangements can be made, parcels shall be delivered as addressed. At all other parcel post offices notice shall be given to addressees, and delivery must be taken at the Parcel Post Office. In all cases senders must advise addressees by post of despatch of parcels, so as to insure prompt delivery.

A receipt must be given by the addressee or his agent before delivery of a parcel. In the case of roadside delivery, addressees may authorise a mailman to receive and sign for their parcels at the parcel post office nearest to their address; but any such authority must be in writing, with the name of the mailman inserted.

If the sender of a parcel posted for delivery within the Commonwealth apply for its return to him prior to its despatch from the office at which it was posted, such parcel shall be handed back without charge, but the postage paid thereon shall not be refunded. If, after its despatch from the office at which posted, but before delivery to the addressee, the sender applies for the return of a parcel, the request must, if possible, be complied with, but before it is handed back to him, the sender must pay half postage at the fully prepaid rate, but not less than 6d. together with the cost of telegram of advice, if one has been required, and any other charges due on such parcel.

The following shall be the rates of postage charged on inland and interstate parcels, viz.:—

OPENING OF PARCELS AND EXAMINATION OF CONTENTS.—Parcels may be opened and examined by Postal Officers, but after so opening the examining officer must securely refasten them. In the case of parcels from places beyond the State of destination, their contents may be examined by the Customs officers in the parcel post office, and, where duties are payable, the same must be paid before the parcels are delivered. Parcels may, however, be forwarded in bond to places where Customs officers are stationed, to be opened in the presence of such officers, who must collect and account for any duty payable on them. Parcels, the contents of which are not dutiable, must be forwarded at once to the Parcel Post Office nearest to destination. The necessary Customs entries will be passed free of cost to the addressees of parcels received.

Money orders shall be issued and paid as under:—

Applications for money orders must be in writing, and must contain the information necessary to insure payment of the proper person. The Christian names at full length must be furnished if possible, not merely the initials. The usual designation of a corporation, company, society, firm, official title, etc., will suffice as remitter or payee. The name of the State, or Country, in addition to the town where payment is desired, must be stated, as towns of the same name exist in different parts of the world, such as Bristol, Croydon, Campbelltown, Gladstone, Ipswich, Maitland, Maryborough, Newcastle, Perth, Richmond, Queenstown, Wellington, etc. The address of the remitter must also be furnished in order that he may be communicated with if necessary. Forms of application may be obtained at any money order office.

No single order payable in the Commonwealth, New Zealand, Canada, Germany, India, or the United States of America may be issued for more than £20; to all other places the limit is £10 except that the maximum amount of a money order from New South Wales or Victoria to Italy may be £20. Two or more orders may be obtained when it is desired to remit larger amounts. No order may contain a fraction of a penny.

Postal Notes.

Postal Notes may be obtained at the Chief Money Order Office, Monday to Friday, 9.30 a.m. to 3.30 p.m.; Saturday, 9.30 a.m. to noon. At the Stamps Sales Office, and General Post Office in each State, during office hours when the Money Order Office is closed. At most post offices in the Commonwealth, during the hours they are open for the sale of stamps.

They shall be payable at all postal note offices, during the hours the latter are open for the transaction of business.

The denominations of postal notes issued, and the commission or poundage charged thereon shall be as follow:—

Denomination	Commission or Poundage.	Denomination	Commission or Poundage.
1s.	 3d.	4s. 6d.	 1d.

2s.	 1d.	7s. 6d.	 2d.
2s. 6d.	 1d.	10s.	 3d.
3s.	 1d.	10s. 6d.	 3d.
3s. 6d.	 1d.	15s.	 3d.
4s.	 1d.	20s.	 3d.

The value of the notes have been so arranged that any sum of shillings and sixpences up to £1 can be remitted by not more than two of these notes.

Broken amounts not exceeding 5d. (but no fractions of a penny) may be added by affixing unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State of issue to the face of a note, when the value of the notes and stamps together will be paid.

The name of the person to whom it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted in the space provided for that purpose in which case the note must be receipted by such person, and if it be presented for payment by any other person he must also receipt the note. The name of a money order or postal note office at which it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted, when (except as mentioned below) the postal note shall be payable at that office only.

A postal note may be crossed (like a cheque), when it shall be paid only through a bank. A note so crossed may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, notwithstanding that the name of an office other than that at which it is presented has been inserted. Notes so crossed must, besides being signed by the payee, be presented by a bank official and bear an impression of the bank's stamp.

If the spaces for name of payee and paying office be not filled up, or if the note be made payable to "Bearer," the value thereof may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, on the person by whom it is presented duly receipting the same.

After a postal note has been paid, by whomsoever presented, the Postmaster-General shall not be liable for any further claim.

After the expiration of six months from the last day of the month of issue, a postal note shall be cashed only at the General Post Office of the State of issue and on payment of a commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, for each period of six months, or portion thereof, beyond the first six months from month of issue; the amount of such commission must be affixed in unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State to the face of the note. A postal note presented for payment after six months from the month of issue shall not be paid until reference has been made to the Chief Money Order Office of the State.

If a postal note contain any alteration or erasure, or be cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

No stamp duty is charged on any postal note issued or paid within the Commonwealth.

TELEGRAPHIC INFORMATION.

HOURS OF BUSINESS.—Telegraph offices shall be open to the public during the hours following:—

At Brisbane Head Office from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturdays 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. At most other offices from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and at the more important offices from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m., except Saturdays.

Prepaid telegrams may be dropped into the box provided at each telegraph station for that purpose, at any time when the office is closed, and shall be transmitted when business is resumed. Such telegrams, with full fee, must be enclosed in sealed envelopes. If the full amount payable for the transmission of a telegram be not enclosed the latter shall be forwarded to its destination, but the addressee shall be required to pay, before delivery, the amount short-paid, together with the cost of the necessary instructions to the delivering office to collect the amount of deficiency.

Scale of Charges.

NEW CALEDONIA.—Between all stations in Queensland and all stations in New Caledonia—Ordinary: For each word, 9d. Press: For each word, 4½d. Addresses and signatures counted.

Double the prescribed rates shall be charged on telegrams (Press telegrams excepted) tendered for transmission on Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday; and on other days between 8 p.m. and 9 a.m. local time, for transmission to offices where business is transacted during those hours.

Telegrams tendered for transmission must be written in a legible manner, in plain language, and when practicable on the proper form, and the address must contain all information necessary to avoid delay and insure delivery. The signature of the sender need not be transmitted, or a telegram may have an abbreviated signature known to the receiver, but the correct signature of the sender must appear on the back of each telegram as a guarantee of its authenticity, and as subscribing to the conditions under which it is transmitted. In the text amounts or numbers must be written in words only.

The charges must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which may be obtained at any Post or Telegraph or Telephone Office. The public must affix the stamps to the telegram forms, and the officer to whom the telegrams are handed for transmission must cancel the stamps in the presence of the person from whom such telegrams are received.

Books of "unstamped" telegram forms may be obtained, on giving timely notice, at any Telegraph or Telephone Office at a cost of 1s. per book of 100 forms.

Words which are habitually written as one word or coupled by hyphens shall be counted as one word, and those which are written without any hyphen, as two or three, as the case may be. Thus, O'Neil and O'Connell must be counted as one word; King of the Ring (name of racehorse) four words; Sir Joshua (name of racehorse) two words; City of Adelaide (name of ship) three words.

The prefix "St." must, however, be reckoned as part of a word, thus St. Kilda, St. James, St. Arnaud, shall be counted as one word each.

A multiple telegram may be addressed, either to several persons in the same locality or in different localities, but served by the same telegraph office, or to the same person at several addresses in the same locality, and shall be charged for as a single telegram with a further charge of half-rate for each copy after the first; the minimum charge for each copy shall be 6d. This regulation shall not apply to "Press" Telegrams.

Telegrams marked "Collect," addressed to places within the Commonwealth, may be accepted only when the sender is known to the officer in charge, and signs an undertaking on a printed form provided for the purpose, that in the event of the addressee refusing to pay the charges for the telegram, he or she will be responsible for the payment of the amount, and the cost of the telegram of advice of the non-payment by the addressee. The word "Collect" must appear in the preamble of the telegram, and be charged for.

The cost of a reply may be prepaid, and a reply-form shall then be delivered to the addressee, who shall be at liberty to send a telegram of the value prepaid, from any telegraph office within the State. A reply-form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay or partly prepay any single telegram for transmission to any place within the Commonwealth, within three months from the date of issue.

Telegrams posted at a post office (which is not a telegraph or telephone office), or in a posting receptacle, shall be forwarded by first mail to the nearest telegraph or telephone office, and transmitted thence by telegraph or telephone to destination, provided the form on which the telegram is written bears unobliterated postage stamps, or is accompanied by cash, sufficient to defray the cost of such transmission, and that it be enclosed in an envelope

(on which postage need not be paid) indorsed "Telegram only," addressed to the officer in charge at the nearest telegraph or telephone office. If the full amount payable for the transmission of the telegram be not enclosed, the latter shall be forwarded to its destination, but the addressee shall be required to pay, before delivery, the amount short-paid, together with the cost of the necessary instructions to the delivering office to collect the amount of deficiency.

Urgent telegrams for transmission to places within the Commonwealth, shall be accepted from the public on payment of double the ordinary fee. Such telegrams will be transmitted and delivered in preference to any other telegram. "Urgent" forms and envelopes must be used for "Urgent" telegrams.

When the sender of an urgent telegram prepays a reply, the officer accepting the telegram must ascertain if the reply is also to be treated as urgent or as an ordinary telegram, and the fact, as the case may be, must be stated in the preamble of the telegram, thus:—"Reply paid, urgent rate," or "Reply paid, ordinary rate." These words must be paid for by the sender of the telegram.

Telegrams shall be delivered, free of charge, within a radius of one mile, and on payment of 3d. if beyond one mile and within a radius of $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the office of destination provided that messengers are attached to that office. If natural obstacles or other difficulties intervene, the Department shall not undertake delivery. Beyond the $1\frac{1}{2}$ -mile radius delivery expenses shall be charged. For telegrams to be delivered on shipboard a charge for boat hire, if necessary, may be made.

No receipts from the addressees need be taken upon the delivery of telegrams originating in and delivered within the Commonwealth. Should it be necessary to obtain evidence of the delivery of a telegram, a receipt therefor, by telegram, may be ordered at the time such telegram is lodged for transmission, and shall be telegraphed back to the sender upon payment of ordinary telegraph charges, or, if desired, sent by post card on payment of 1d.

Senders of telegrams must invariably give every information they can to the officers of the Department that will facilitate delivery; if the sender omit to do so it is at his own risk. When it is found that the place to which a telegram is to be delivered is beyond the radius of $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the office, and no portage has been guaranteed or paid, the telegram may be posted from the office of receipt.

Where no messengers are employed telegrams remain at the office until called for. Arrangements have been made in many cases for special delivery, at fixed rates, of telegrams for places beyond the limits of free delivery.

Notices of removal and instructions in writing, respecting the delivery of telegrams at hours when the addressee's place of business is closed shall be registered free of charge. If no such instructions have been registered, and any additional service is performed in delivering a telegram at a second address in the same town, an extra charge of 6d. shall be made.

Ordinary telegrams take precedence of press telegrams between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., and all telegrams received at any one time addressed to the proprietor, publisher, or agent of a newspaper for transmission at press rates between the hours named may be restricted to 500 words.

Subscribers to telephone exchanges may transmit by telephone to any telegraph office which may be connected with a telephone exchange messages intended to be further transmitted from the telegraph office to the respective destinations of such messages as telegrams; provided they pay the usual cost of such telegrams in addition to the rates for transmission through the telephone.

Any person employed in a telegraph office may refuse to receive or transmit a telegram containing blasphemous, indecent, obscene, offensive, or scandalous matter in its contents, address, or signature.

Arrangements may be made to keep any official office open for the transmission of telegrams after the ordinary business hours, upon notice being given to the officer in charge, at least one hour before the ordinary time of closing, and upon payment of a deposit of 2s. 6d. for the first hour or portion thereof and 1s. 6d. for every subsequent hour, or portion thereof, during which it is desired the office shall be kept open. All telegrams transmitted must be paid for at the usual rates.

REDIRECTION.—A telegram may, on the written request of the addressee or his agent, be redirected and retransmitted from one office to another within the Commonwealth; such telegrams shall, on retransmission, be charged the full rate, which must be paid before delivery.

REPETITION OF TELEGRAMS.—In order to provide against mistakes in the transmission and delivery of telegrams, any telegram may be repeated by being retransmitted from the office of delivery to the sender on payment by the latter, at the time of lodgment, of 50 per cent. in addition to the ordinary rate. In such telegrams the word "repeat" must appear in the preamble of the telegrams and be charged for.

RECTIFICATION OF TELEGRAMS.—The receiver of a telegram may have the whole or part of it repeated on payment of the cost of the telegram demanding the repetition and of the reply to the same. The sender may also have the whole or any portion of his message repeated on payment of the cost of the telegram he forwards and of the reply.

The money paid for the repetition shall be refunded should such repetition show that the error was made in the original telegram, but shall be retained should no error have been made; provided, however, that when some words have been correctly, and some incorrectly, reproduced in the first telegram, the charge for words in the request for repetition, and in the reply relating exclusively to words correctly transmitted originally, shall not be refunded. No refund shall be made for words written in a doubtful manner, nor shall any claim be entertained for refund of cost of consequential telegram, that is, private telegrams which the addressee or sender causes to be sent in connection with any supposed error in a telegram.

TELEPHONE REGULATIONS.

Applications for connection with the telephone system must be made to the Deputy Postmaster-General, Brisbane.

All telephone lines, instruments, etc., in connection with the telephone system are erected and supplied by the Postmaster-General, the cost being borne by the Government, and no persons, except employees of the department are to be allowed to interfere with any wires, instruments, etc., under the Department's control. Registration of Births, Marriages, and Deaths.

EVERY Birth must be registered within sixty days, and every Death within thirty days next thereafter respectively; any neglect of this regulation renders the parties whose duty it is to register liable to a fine not exceeding £10. If sixty days have elapsed from the date of birth, the law requires the parent, or other person making the application to register such birth, to pay a fee of two shillings and sixpence, and to make a solemn declaration of the facts before a Justice of the Peace, prior to the registration. The father or mother ought to sign as informant. If unable to write, let a mark be made. No birth can be registered after three years have elapsed from the date thereof; but a record will be made in the Registrar-General's office if reliable information be supplied by the parents respecting such birth.

Every Minister who has celebrated a marriage must, within one month thereafter, transmit (in accordance with the Act 28 Victoria, No. 15) the original certificate to the Registrar of the District in which the marriage was celebrated, and every Minister who fails to transmit the certificate to the District Registrar is liable to a fine of NOT LESS THAN £10, and not exceeding £50. Marriages must be solemnised between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. Persons under age must produce the written authority of parents or guardians, signed by them in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, Registered Minister, or District Registrar, or the marriage cannot take place.

In every case of Burial, the Minister or person officiating at any religious service at such Burial, ought to receive from the undertaker, or person having charge of the funeral, a certificate from the District Registrar, certifying the registration of the death, unless in the case of inquest, when a certificate from the Coroner or Magistrate holding the inquest will be sufficient; and if any dead body shall be buried without such certificate, the person who may bury the same, or perform any funeral or religious service for the burial, or who shall in any way dispose of the body, shall forthwith give notice of the facts to the District Registrar. Undertakers are bound, under a penalty not exceeding £10, to lodge with the District Registrar, IMMEDIATELY after the burial a certificate of such burial, signed by themselves and COUNTERSIGNED BY TWO WITNESSES.

AGENCIES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL TOWNS IN QUEENSLAND.

This Company was incorporated by Special Act of Parliament in 1888 solely for the purpose of acting in the capacities and of performing the duties undermentioned AS IT TAKES NO OTHER BUSINESS WHATEVER, it is not only free from any element of speculation, but provides for the public a permanent and guaranteed system of skilled management under the direct supervision of the Supreme Court. Under the Company's Special Act, it may be appointed to undertake any of the following duties:—Executor, Administrator, or Trustee under Wills, Marriage, or other Settlements; Attorney or Agent in the management or realisation of Estates; Guardian of the Person and the Estate of any Infant, Liquidator or Official Liquidator of any Company; Trustee in Insolvency; or Committee in Lunacy.

In compliance with the Company's Act, the sum of £20,000 is invested in the name of the State Treasurer as security for the faithful performance of duties entrusted to the Company. THE CHARGES are less than the Court usually allows to private executors. Pamphlets obtainable on application.

P. A. BLUNDELL, Manager.

A WILL should be made in the plainest language possible; it must be written with ink on paper or parchment, and must be signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator (the person who makes the will) or some other person, in his presence, and by his direction, and the testator must make or acknowledge such signature in the presence of two or more witnesses, who must be present at the same time and attest and subscribe the will in the testator's presence. A full attestation clause is given in the forms below, and its use in all cases will probably save a lot of trouble.

The witnesses should not be in any way beneficially interested in the will, as any beneficial gift, legacy or appointment by the will to an attesting witness, or to the husband or wife of an attesting witness (except a charge for payment of debts) is void. An executor or trustee appointed by a will may, however, act as an attesting witness.

A witness need not know the contents of the will, as the will may be so folded that the signature and Attestation Clause alone may be seen.

On the question of whom to appoint executors or trustees, attention is directed to the advantages of appointing a permanent institution like Queensland Trustees Limited, whose advertisement appears on the opposite page.

FORMS OF WILLS.

I.—WILL GIVING TO ONE ABSOLUTELY ALL THE TESTATOR'S REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE.

I, A.B., of &c. (testator's name, residence, and quality), hereby REVOKE all testamentary writings heretofore executed by me, and declare this to be my last will made and executed on the day of 19 . . I DEVISE and BEQUEATH all my real and personal estate unto (devisee's name, residence, and quality) absolutely. AND I APPOINT the said (name) sole executor of this my will. IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand.

(Testator's signature).

Signed by A.B., of &c., as his last will, in the presence of us present at the same time, who, at at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.

(Names and addresses of two witnesses).

II.—WILL OF A MARRIED MAN GIVING THE INCOME OF HIS PROPERTY TO HIS WIFE: SUBJECT THERETO, THE CAPITAL EQUALLY AMONG HIS CHILDREN, THE CHILDREN OF A DECEASED CHILD TAKING THEIR PARENT'S SHARE.

THIS IS THE LAST WILL of me (testator's name, residence, and quality). I REVOKE all testamentary instruments heretofore executed by me, and I APPOINT and for Queensland Trustees Limited, hereinafter called "my trustees," executors and trustees of this my will. I BEQUEATH to my wife (name) all the household furniture, plate, linen, china, glass, books, pictures, prints, provisions, and other household effects belonging to me at the time of my death, and a legacy of £....., to be paid to her out of the first moneys coming to the hands of my executors. And as to all the rest of my estate and effects, both real and personal, I devise and bequeath the same unto and to the use of my trustees UPON TRUST to sell, call in and convert into money my real and residuary personal estate. And UPON FURTHER TRUST to invest the money arising from the sale calling in and conversion thereof in the names or name of the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will; And to pay the annual income of such investments to my wife during her life. And from and after her death as to the capital and income of the same investments UPON TRUST for my children in equal shares, the respective shares of such children to be absolutely vested on my death. Provided that if any child of mine shall die in my lifetime, leaving issue, who shall survive me, and who being male shall attain the age of twenty-one years, or being female shall attain that age, or marry under that age, such issue shall take, and if more than one, equally between them, the share which their, his, or her parent would have taken of and in any residuary estate if such parent had lived to attain a vested interest. I DECLARE that the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will shall have a discretionary power to postpone for such period as to them or him shall seem expedient the sale calling in or conversion of any parts of my real or personal estate, but the unsold real estate and the outstanding personal estate shall be subject to the trusts hereinbefore contained concerning the investments aforesaid, and the rents and yearly produce thereof shall be deemed annual income for the purposes of such trusts, and the unsold real estate shall be deemed to be converted as from the time of my death, and be transmissible as personal estate accordingly. I DECLARE that if at any time or times during the widowhood of my wife the annual income of my estate shall be less than £....., it shall be lawful for the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will to raise out of the capital thereof and pay to my widow such a sum as will make her income up to £..... a year. I DECLARE that so long as my wife lives and continues unmarried the power of appointing new trustees conferred by statute shall be exercisable by her. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this.....day of.....190

Signed by the testator, the said (testator's name), as his last will in the presence of us present at the same time, who at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.

(Names and addresses of two witnesses)

NOTE.—Obliterations and alterations of any sort in the will ought, if possible, to be avoided: when they have to be made, each one of them must be signed or initialled by the testator and witnessed on the margin, or as near to the alteration as possible.

It is also advisable for both the testator and the witnesses to subscribe their names at the foot of every sheet, where the will contains more than one sheet of paper.

Marriage after making a will renders the will void, and necessitates another being made.

N.B.—If the above forms are not adapted to your requirements, it will be prudent to secure professional assistance, and if this is not at hand, write to the manager of Queensland Trustees Limited, vide advertisement on opposite page.
